NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

CONGRESSMAN MCKINLEY ventures the opinion that ex-Governor Foster of Ohio will be Harrison's Secretary of the Treasury.

THOMAS C. PLATT told a friend in Washington yesterday that he thought New York would be passed over in the makeup of the Cabinet.

NEARLY a hundred tramps were chained together in the Warren county, N. J., jail yesterday, and set to breaking stone in the public gravel pit. They are to work several hours each day.

COL. LAMONT is to become President of the Avenue C Street Railroad Company of New-York after the 4th of March. This is spoiling a good newspaper man to make a doubtful or indifferent railway manager.

COL. WRIGHT, who has charge of the "personal comfort" of the inauguration visitors, has secured quarters for 17,757, and has applications for 25,000 more. And the rush of individual applicants has not yet begun.

GEN. GREELY wants the signal service improved. He reports that two-thirds of the Lieutenants are either mentally or physically incompetent for duty. The mental incompetency has been clearly shown for a long time in the weather reports.

A FEW days ago Rev. Robert Johnson was engaged in collecting subscriptions in New York for a church in Essex county, but it was proved that he appropriated the money to his own use. Yesterday Judge Cowing sentenced him to state prison for two years.

LIZZIE MARGOLIN sued Abraham Gillin in New York for breach of promise, claiming $10,000 damages. Abraham was locked up in jail till yesterday when the case was settled without cost to the defendant. Lizzie had discovered that it was not Abraham but his twin brother who had failed to keep his promise.

THE news has been received at Gainesville, Ga., that Gen. Longstreet is to become Register of the Treasury in place of Gen. Rosecrans. The duties of this officer consist in writing his signature upon Treasury notes, drafts, bonds, etc. The Register is also the book-keeper of the Treasury, and has supervision of the work of 300 or 400 trained clerks.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER of New York, it is announced, will build a Baptist University in Chicago. His gift will amount to several hundred thousand dollars, and perhaps a million. The old Chicago University went into liquidation in 1886, and the buildings of that institution will suffice, with some improvements, for an early beginning of the work of the new University.

THE trial of McQuade, the second of the New York boodlers on District Attorney Fellows's list, has been ordered to Saratoga county, and will take place at Ballston Spa. Both Cleary and McQuade will find themselves in districts which have only Republican Judges. They are therefore sure of getting just as much justice as can be ground out of Fellows's preparation of their cases.

MINISTER PHELPS brought home 104 trunks and several hand bags. The appalling accusation brought by Democrats in the last campaign that Mr. Blaine brought home 82 trunks has a ridiculously small sound since the minister's return. The custom house officials gave an entire day to the inspection of Mr. Phelps's effects, which were found to consist mainly of goods on the free list.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TABOR decides that Building Superintendent Andrews is not entitled to $3,500 extra pay awarded him for superintending the work of putting up the papier mache ceiling of the Assembly chamber. But Mr. Andrews has already drawn $7,000 without a warrant and expects to keep it. And why should he not? The man who can stow away 700,000 feet of lumber, $30,000 worth of brick and 1,685 barrels of cement in the Assembly attic and prop them up with panels of papier mache is a genius in his line.

GEN. GROSVENOR introduced a resolution in the House yesterday, for the appointment of five members of the committee on elections who have been chosen to the next House, to take testimony without delay in relation to the election of Representative in the second district of Arkansas, where John M. Clayton was killed while preparing to contest the election of Breckinridge. Unless this is done, Gen. Grosvenor said, Breckinridge would vote upon the organization of the next House. The resolution was referred to the elections committee.

TITA CLEMENT and Victor Boff, Polish Jews, were married by a Justice of the Peace in Newark about two months ago. They were afterwards convinced that the marriage was not legal, and called in a Rabbi to repeat the religious ceremony. As they were about to be pronounced man and wife, they were arrested by a constable on warrants for bigamy, sworn out by friends who had not been invited to the wedding. The pair were marched to jail, while their bad friends stole the wedding feast. On examination before a Justice both admitted that they had been married before, but claimed that they had been divorced by a Rabbi whose fee was $5. It was found that the Rabbi had been doing a large and flourishing trade in his ready made divorces.

THE West Virginia Republicans are waking up to a scheme of Gov. Wilson, Secretary of State Walker and President of the Senate Carr to prolong the Legislative dead lock for their own benefit. Without Carr's vote there can be no election of a United States Senator or a legal declaration of the vote on Governor. The scheme is to continue the dead lock till the 23d inst., when the term of the Legislature will expire. Wilson will accordingly hold over as Governor till after the 4th of March, when he will resign and Carr will become Governor. Carr will then appoint Wilson to the Senatorial vacancy, and reappoint Walker Secretary of State. If Carr refuses to convene the Legislature in extra session, all these offices will be secure to the conspirators till January, 1890. And the Democrats of West Virginia call this "good politics."

THE ASSEMBLY CEILING.

Various Assemblymen Made Brief Speeches Thereon.

A TALK IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Assemblyman Martin Relates His Experience in Gotham.

WHO WAS THE BRIBER?

His Name Not Divulged, Though 'Twas Asked For.

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE.

THE ASSEMBLY CEILING MATTER.

A Number of Assemblymen "Free Their Minds"—Mr. Martin's Trip.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, Feb. 12.—The Assembly Chamber, this forenoon, was the scene of much excitement, arising from Sheehan calling up question of the alleged attempt of a lobbyist to bribe a member of the Assembly Appropriations Committee to assist in handing in a white-washing report on the Assembly ceiling investigation, which the Committee has in charge.

A HEATED DISCUSSION.

A heated discussion followed, which was participated in by 15 or 20 members. John Martin, of New-York, stated that he was the member who was approached in New-York by a man who informed him it would be to his financial advantage to help formulate such a report.

WHAT SHEEHAN SAID.

Sheehan opened the matter by rising to a question of privilege. Publications in New-York and other papers, this morning, he said, reflected upon him as a member of the Committee of last year which supervised the construction of the Assembly ceiling. In substance the charge is that "a member of this House, who is also a member of the Committee on Appropriations, which Committee is now investigating the ceiling subject, was offered by a lobbyist in New-York, a few days ago, $5,000 if he would vote with five other members of that Committee to white-wash the Assembly ceiling Committee." This, he said, was where his question of privilege came in. If any attempt had been or was being made, by corrupt means, or otherwise, to bring about a white-washing report, that was something he had considerable personal interest in. Of course, it was a rather delicate question. He was unable to say just what was the proper course to pursue. He had hoped some steps would be taken by some member of the House not on the Ceiling Committee to probe this matter to the bottom. It seemed to him something should be done, because no matter how much confidence the people of the State may have in the Appropriation Committee, if their report proved to be a complete vindication of the whole subject matter and declared that the work had been honestly performed the people will not have that confidence in the report that they would have had if these charges had never been made. Therefore, as a member of the Ceiling Committee, zealous for his own reputation, he believed something should be done to investigate the Appropriations Committee. It had been suggested that the House pass a vote of confidence in the Committee, and then the Committee would be at liberty to ask to be relieved from further consideration of the matter. After that the whole question could be referred to a special committee or one of the standing committees of the House.

MORE DECLARATIONS.

Gallup, also a member of the Ceiling Committee, declared it was the duty of the member of the House to whom the bribe had been offered to rise in his seat and give the name of the briber. If the Appropriations Committee were discharged now the same person was at liberty to pursue his nefarious schemes with reference to the other committees.

ENSE EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE.

Ense, another member of the Ceiling Committee, expressed the fullest confidence in the integrity of the Appropriations Committee. He had not seen any reason yet to believe they would not make the fullest possible investigation.

A COMMITTEE MAY INVESTIGATE.

Dunlap moved that a Special Committee of five be appointed to investigate the reports and rumors in the newspapers to-day to which Mase offered an amendment that the whole matter be referred to the Appropriations Committee.

WHAT HUSTED SAID.

Husted did not believe in investigating the Appropriation Committee. Such a course at this time would be unwise, unjust and unfair.

SHEEHAN ASKS A QUESTION.

Sheehan inquired of Husted whether the report of the Appropriations Committee would be received with confidence, if it exonorated every body connected with the ceiling.

HUSTED'S REPLY.

Husted replied that he was not a believer in total human depravity. He believed the great majority of men were honest. If a member of this House had been offered a bribe it was his duty to name the bribe. He moved a postponement of the whole matter until noon to-morrow. Dunlap thought the House should first determine whether there was any truth in all this talk about bribery.

SAXTON MAKES A SUGGESTION.

Saxton suggested that there was no charge to be investigated until the member of the House, whoever he might be, should rise in his place and make a specific charge that an attempt had been made to bribe him. Unless this was done there would be no end of investigations. He believed the Appropriations Committee would go to the bottom of the whole matter. Several members endeavored to get the Speaker's recognition, among them Martin, of New-York, to whom the bribery stories evidently pointed, though his name had not been mentioned, and when the Speaker recognized him all eyes were turned upon him.

MARTIN DEFINES HIS POSITION.

Martin said that although his name had not been mentioned he was probably generally regarded as the central figure in this matter. He was free to say he had intended to take no notice of the rumors so far as they affected himself at this particular time but this discussion forced him into it. It was his intention to have taken cognizance of the rumors when witnesses were examined. There was some truth and a great deal that was not true in them. He was free to say that some days ago he received a note from a certain gentleman to call at a certain place in New-York City. He [Martin] called at the place mentioned. The name of the signer of the note was not known to him. A conversation occurred in reference to the ceiling matter, and the gentleman said it would be to his [Martin's] advantage to consult further with him in reference to the investigation in progress. That was about the sum and substance of the matter.

BOMBARDED WITH QUESTIONS.

At this juncture, the members of the House began to bombard Martin with questions. Aspinwall asked whether it was a member of the Assembly who approached him.

MARTIN SAYS "NO, SIR."

"No, sir," emphatically replied Martin.

ASKED TO NAME THE BRIBER.

Aspinwall then asked Martin to name the briber.

MR. MARTIN ANNOYED.

Martin, with considerable show of annoyance, replied that he did not propose to be cross-examined severally by the members of the House. If the gentlemen had not been so anxious and had let him alone to follow his own course there would have been more information obtained; then he would have ascertained the whole facts. It was now simply a question of veracity between himself and some one else unknown to the House. There was no necessity of a Committee investigating. He declared that the newspapers' statement that a certain number of members of the Appropriation Committee were in a position to vote so that there would be a tie—five to five—and that he was to be the sixth was not true. He had found a most earnest desire on the part of the whole Committee to make the investigation full, thorough and honest. No member had thrown the slightest obstacle in the way. The Committee did not need any urging or egging on. He proposed in the Appropriations Committee, to bring out all the facts. An intimation was made to him by the person referred to that the action as indicated by him would prove to his [Martin's] financial advantage.

AINSWORTH ASKS A QUESTION.

Ainsworth inquired what was the course of action this gentleman desired to be taken.

MR MARTIN "SUPPOSES."

Martin—"Well, I suppose I have got to give the whole story now."

MR. MARTIN FREES HIS MIND.

Martin then went on to say that it was stated by the gentleman that there was apparently an intention on the part of some members of the House to make this a case of persecution, not prosecution; in other words they were going for Cole's scalp, meaning the Speaker. It was stated to him that there were other members of the Ceiling Committee involved, and that he, as a member of the Appropriation Committee, could take the position of exonorating them.

MR. GALLUP ASKS A QUESTION.

Gallup asked how the members of the press learned the facts if Martin desired to keep them secret.

MR. MARTIN CRITICISES THE PRESS.

Martin replied that the press was fearfully and wonderfully made.

JUDGE GREENE DESIRES INFORMATION.

Judge Greene asked whether there was any statement made to Martin by the alleged briber to the effect that five members of the Appropriation Committee were ready to sign a white-washing report, and that he [Martin] was wanted as the sixth. Martin said no such statement was made.

"WHAT WAS IT WORTH?"

Dunlap—"Was the statement made that it would be worth $5,000?"

"NOT AS TO THE AMOUNT."

Martin—"Not as to the amount."

THE VALUE, AGAIN.

Dunlap—"How much was it to be worth?"

MARTIN OBJECTS.

Martin—"I am not here to be criticised."

ASPINALL EXPRESSES AN OPINION.

Aspinall characterized Martin's statement as a most surprising one. It was his duty to give the House the name of the briber. He [Aspinall] would not have waited as Martin had until compelled to rise in his place. He would have made the statement in the face of the attempted briber. He denied that he had any soreness against the Speaker of the House because he did not get the places he desired on Committees. He was interested in this matter because he believed the State had been robbed of $177,000 and he proposed to state his views honestly if he was the only man out of 128 who did.

WHAT SPEAKER COLE SAID.

The Speaker here said there had apparently been an effort on the part of some one to retard this investigation on the theory that some parties in the House, owing to personal animosity were endeavoring to persecute the Speaker. He hoped the investigation would not stop in any way on his account. He desired it to be thorough and searching.

FAIR TREATMENT DESIRED.

Ainsworth, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, said he simply desired fair treatment from the newspapers. After the Committee reported, if the report was not satisfactory, they could bury him. It had been stated that he and other members of the Committee had been bought and were ready to sign a white-washing report.

ABOUT REPORTERS, ETC.

Various members made remarks about newspapers, reporters, etc., and hard things were said.

REFERRED TO APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE.

The whole matter was then referred to the Appropriation Committee.

Business Transacted in the Senate and in the House of Representatives.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In the House to-day the Senate bill to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States in Panama was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

Mr. Townsend introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for a special display of the farm products of the United States at the Paris Exposition.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

The House resumed consideration of the Smalls Elliott contested election case. Mr. O'Ferral, of Virginia, a member of the Committee on Elections, defended the majority report. He answered the criticism made by Mr. Rowell, of Illinois, upon the election laws of South Carolina by the declaration that in many respects they were the laws framed under a Republican administration. It was a fair law, and similar to the law of almost every State in the Union.

WHAT MR. LEWIS SAID.

A study of the testimony, he said, would prove that there was no weight to be given to the charge of fraud by the Canvassing Board. Intimidation had been rife on the part of Smalls and his supporters, and the free exercise of the elective franchise had been trampled under foot by the man to whom the minority wished to give a seat on this floor.

IN THE U. S. SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In executive session of the Senate, this afternoon, Senator Plumb, from the Committee on Agriculture, favorably reported the nomination of Norman J. Colman, of Missouri, to be Secretary of Agriculture. Objection was made by a Republican Senator to consideration at this time, and a Democratic Senator then objected to admission of the nomination, and under the rule it went over until the next executive session. It is understood the nomination will be confirmed when it again comes before the Senate.

EDGERTON'S PROSPECTIVE SUCCESSOR.

The nomination of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Thompson to be Civil Service Commissioner in place of Edgerton, removed, and of First Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson, to be Judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, will be subject to the general rule adopted by the majority of the Senate respecting political nominations.

IN REFERENCE TO PRESSES.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Messrs. Hiscock and Harris, the Sub-Committee of the Senate Finance Committee, who have had under consideration for several months the question of supplanting the steam press plate printing machines in the bureau of engraving and printing by the re-introducing of hand machines, to-day reported to the full Committee adversely to the advocates of the proposed change. The report is made upon a House bill, which requires that the printing of stamps, notes and bonds shall be done in the highest style of art. The Sub-Committee say steam press work fulfils that requirement.

CAUCUS OF REP. SENATORS.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

CONGRESSMAN MCKINLEY ventures the opinion that ex-Governor Foster of Ohio will be Harrison's Secretary of the Treasury.

THOMAS C. PLATT told a friend in Washington yesterday that he thought New York would be passed over in the makeup of the Cabinet.

NEARLY a hundred tramps were chained together in the Warren county, N. J., jail yesterday, and set to breaking stone in the public gravel pit. They are to work several hours each day.

COL. LAMONT is to become President of the Avenue C Street Railroad Company of New-York after the 4th of March. This is spoiling a good newspaper man to make a doubtful or indifferent railway manager.

COL. WRIGHT, who has charge of the "personal comfort" of the inauguration visitors, has secured quarters for 17,757, and has applications for 25,000 more. And the rush of individual applicants has not yet begun.

GEN. GREELY wants the signal service improved. He reports that two-thirds of the Lieutenants are either mentally or physically incompetent for duty. The mental incompetency has been clearly shown for a long time in the weather reports.

A FEW days ago Rev. Robert Johnson was engaged in collecting subscriptions in New York for a church in Essex county, but it was proved that he appropriated the money to his own use. Yesterday Judge Cowing sentenced him to state prison for two years.

LIZZIE MARGOLIN sued Abraham Gillin in New York for breach of promise, claiming $10,000 damages. Abraham was locked up in jail till yesterday when the case was settled without cost to the defendant. Lizzie had discovered that it was not Abraham but his twin brother who had failed to keep his promise.

THE news has been received at Gainesville, Ga., that Gen. Longstreet is to become Register of the Treasury in place of Gen. Rosecrans. The duties of this officer consist in writing his signature upon Treasury notes, drafts, bonds, etc. The Register is also the book-keeper of the Treasury, and has supervision of the work of 300 or 400 trained clerks.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER of New York, it is announced, will build a Baptist University in Chicago. His gift will amount to several hundred thousand dollars, and perhaps a million. The old Chicago University went into liquidation in 1886, and the buildings of that institution will suffice, with some improvements, for an early beginning of the work of the new University.

THE trial of McQuade, the second of the New York boodlers on District Attorney Fellows's list, has been ordered to Saratoga county, and will take place at Ballston Spa. Both Cleary and McQuade will find themselves in districts which have only Republican Judges. They are therefore sure of getting just as much justice as can be ground out of Fellows's preparation of their cases.

MINISTER PHELPS brought home 104 trunks and several hand bags. The appalling accusation brought by Democrats in the last campaign that Mr. Blaine brought home 82 trunks has a ridiculously small sound since the minister's return. The custom house officials gave an entire day to the inspection of Mr. Phelps's effects, which were found to consist mainly of goods on the free list.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TABOR decides that Building Superintendent Andrews is not entitled to $3,500 extra pay awarded him for superintending the work of putting up the papier mache ceiling of the Assembly chamber. But Mr. Andrews has already drawn $7,000 without a warrant and expects to keep it. And why should he not? The man who can stow away 700,000 feet of lumber, $80,000 worth of brick and 1,685 barrels of cement in the Assembly attic and prop them up with panels of papier mache is a genius in his line.

GEN. GROSVENOR introduced a resolution in the House yesterday, for the appointment of five members of the committee on elections who have been chosen to the next House, to take testimony without delay in relation to the election of Representative in the second district of Arkansas, where John M. Clayton was killed while preparing to contest the election of Breckinridge. Unless this is done, Gen. Grosvenor said, Breckinridge would vote upon the organization of the next House. The resolution was referred to the elections committee.

TITA CLEMENT and Victor Boff, Polish Jews, were married by a Justice of the Peace in Newark about two months ago. They were afterwards convinced that the marriage was not legal, and called in a Rabbi to repeat the religious ceremony. As they were about to be pronounced man and wife, they were arrested by a constable on warrants for bigamy, sworn out by friends who had not been invited to the wedding. The pair were marched to jail, while their bad friends stole the wedding feast. On examination before a Justice both admitted that they had been married before, but claimed that they had been divorced by a Rabbi whose fee was $5. It was found that the Rabbi had been doing a large and flourishing trade in his ready made divorces.

THE West Virginia Republicans are waking up to a scheme of Gov. Wilson, Secretary of State Walker and President of the Senate Carr to prolong the Legislative dead lock for their own benefit. Without Carr's vote there can be no election of a United States Senator or a legal declaration of the vote on Governor. The scheme is to continue the dead lock till the 23d inst., when the term of the Legislature will expire. Wilson will accordingly hold over as Governor till after the 4th of March, when he will resign and Carr will become Governor. Carr will then appoint Wilson to the Senatorial vacancy, and reappoint Walker Secretary of State. If Carr refuses to convene the Legislature in extra session, all these offices will be secure to the conspirators till January, 1890. And the Democrats of West Virginia call this "good politics."

THE ASSEMBLY CEILING.

Various Assemblymen Made Brief Speeches Thereon.

A TALK IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Assemblyman Martin Relates His Experience in Gotham.

WHO WAS THE BRIBER?

His Name Not Divulged, Though 'Twas Asked For.

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE.

THE ASSEMBLY CEILING MATTER.

A Number of Assemblymen "Free Their Minds"—Mr Martin's Trip.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, Feb. 12.—The Assembly Chamber, this forenoon, was the scene of much excitement, arising from Sheehan calling up question of the alleged attempt of a lobbyist to bribe a member of the Assembly Appropriations Committee to assist in handing in a white-washing report on the Assembly ceiling investigation, which the Committee has in charge.

A HEATED DISCUSSION.

A heated discussion followed, which was participated in by 15 or 20 members. John Martin, of New-York, stated that he was the member who was approached in New-York by a man who informed him it would be to his financial advantage to help formulate such a report.

WHAT SHEEHAN SAID.

Sheehan opened the matter by rising to a question of privilege. Publications in New-York and other papers, this morning, he said, reflected upon him as a member of the Committee of last year which supervised the construction of the Assembly ceiling. In substance the charge is that "a member of this House, who is also a member of the Committee on Appropriations, which Committee is now investigating the ceiling subject, was offered by a lobbyist in New-York, a few days ago, $5,000 if he would vote with five other members of that Committee to white-wash the Assembly ceiling Committee." This, he said, was where his question of privilege came in. If any attempt had been or was being made, by corrupt means, or otherwise, to bring about a white-washing report, that was something he had considerable personal interest in. Of course, it was a rather delicate question. He was unable to say just what was the proper course to pursue. He had hoped some steps would be taken by some member of the House not on the Ceiling Committee to probe this matter to the bottom. It seemed to him something should be done, because no matter how much confidence the people of the State may have in the Appropriation Committee, if their report proved to be a complete vindication of the whole subject matter and declared that the work had been honestly performed the people will not have that confidence in the report that they would have had if these charges had never been made. Therefore, as a member of the Ceiling Committee, zealous for his own reputation, he believed something should be done to investigate the Appropriations Committee. It had been suggested that the House pass a vote of confidence in the Committee, and then the Committee would be at liberty to ask to be relieved from further consideration of the matter. After that the whole question could be referred to a special committee or one of the standing committees of the House.

MORE DECLARATIONS.

Gallup, also a member of the Ceiling Committee, declared it was the duty of the member of the House to whom the bribe had been offered to rise in his seat and give the name of the briber. If the Appropriations Committee were discharged now the same person was at liberty to pursue his nefarious schemes with reference to the other committees.

ENSE EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE.

Ense, another member of the Ceiling Committee, expressed the fullest confidence in the integrity of the Appropriations Committee. He had not seen any reason yet to believe they would not make the fullest possible investigation.

A COMMITTEE MAY INVESTIGATE.

Dunlap moved that a Special Committee of five be appointed to investigate the reports and rumors in the newspapers to-day to which Mase offered an amendment that the whole matter be referred to the Appropriations Committee.

WHAT HUSTED SAID.

Husted did not believe in investigating the Appropriation Committee. Such a course at this time would be unwise, unjust and unfair.

SHEEHAN ASKS A QUESTION.

Sheehan inquired of Husted whether the report of the Appropriations Committee would be received with confidence, if it exonorated every body connected with the ceiling.

HUSTED'S REPLY.

Husted replied that he was not a believer in total human depravity. He believed the great majority of men were honest. If a member of this House had been offered a bribe it was his duty to name the bribe. He moved a postponement of the whole matter until noon to-morrow. Dunlap thought the House should first determine whether there was any truth in all this talk about bribery.

SAXTON MAKES A SUGGESTION.

Saxton suggested that there was no charge to be investigated until the member of the House, whoever he might be, should rise in his place and make a specific charge that an attempt had been made to bribe him. Unless this was done there would be no end of investigations. He believed the Appropriations Committee would go to the bottom of the whole matter. Several members endeavored to get the Speaker's recognition, among them Martin, of New-York, to whom the bribery stories evidently pointed, though his name had not been mentioned, and when the Speaker recognized him all eyes were turned upon him.

MARTIN DEFINES HIS POSITION.

Martin said that although his name had not been mentioned he was probably generally regarded as the central figure in this matter. He was free to say he had intended to take no notice of the rumors so far as they affected himself at this particular time but this discussion forced him into it. It was his intention to have taken cognizance of the rumors when witnesses were examined. There was some truth and a great deal that was not true in them. He was free to say that some days ago he received a note from a certain gentleman to call at a certain place in New-York City. He [Martin] called at the place mentioned. The name of the signer of the note was not known to him. A conversation occurred in reference to the ceiling matter, and the gentleman said it would be to his [Martin's] advantage to consult further with him in reference to the investigation in progress. That was about the sum and substance of the matter.

BOMBARDED WITH QUESTIONS.

At this juncture, the members of the House began to bombard Martin with questions. Aspinwall asked whether it was a member of the Assembly who approached him.

MARTIN SAYS "NO, SIR."

"No, sir," emphatically replied Martin.

ASKED TO NAME THE BRIBER.

Aspinwall then asked Martin to name the briber.

MR. MARTIN ANNOYED.

Martin, with considerable show of annoyance, replied that he did not propose to be cross-examined severally by the members of the House. If the gentlemen had not been so anxious and had let him alone to follow his own course there would have been more information obtained; then he would have ascertained the whole facts. It was now simply a question of veracity between himself and some one else unknown to the House. There was no necessity of a Committee investigating. He declared that the newspapers' statement that a certain number of members of the Appropriation Committee were in a position to vote so that there would be a tie—five to five—and that he was to be the sixth was not true. He had found a most earnest desire on the part of the whole Committee to make the investigation full, thorough and honest. No member had thrown the slighest obstacle in the way. The Committee did not need any urging or egging on. He proposed in the Appropriations Committee, to bring out all the facts. An intimation was made to him by the person referred to that the action as indicated by him would prove to his [Martin's] financial advantage.

AINSWORTH ASKS A QUESTION.

Ainsworth inquired what was the course of action this gentleman desired to be taken.

MR MARTIN "SUPPOSES."

Martin—"Well, I suppose I have got to give the whole story now."

MR. MARTIN FREES HIS MIND.

Martin then went on to say that it was stated by the gentleman that there was apparently an intention on the part of some members of the House to make this a case of persecution, not prosecution; in other words they were going for Cole's scalp, meaning the Speaker. It was stated to him that there were other members of the Ceiling Committee involved, and that he, as a member of the Appropriation Committee, could take the position of exonorating them.

MR. GALLUP ASKS A QUESTION.

Gallup asked how the members of the press learned the facts if Martin desired to keep them secret.

MR. MARTIN CRITICSES THE PRESS.

Martin replied that the press was fearfully and wonderfully made.

JUDGE GREENE DESIRES INFORMATION.

Judge Greene asked whether there was any statement made to Martin by the alleged briber to the effect that five members of the Appropriation Committee were ready to sign a white-washing report, and that he [Martin] was wanted as the sixth. Martin said no such statement was made.

"WHAT WAS IT WORTH?"

Dunlap—"Was the statement made that it would be worth $5,000?"

"NOT AS TO THE AMOUNT."

Martin—"Not as to the amount."

THE VALUE, AGAIN.

Dunlap—"How much was it to be worth?"

MARTIN OBJECTS.

Martin—"I am not here to be criticised."

ASPINALL EXPRESSES AN OPINION.

Aspinall characterized Martin's statement as a most surprising one. It was his duty to give the House the name of the briber. He [Aspinall] would not have waited as Martin had until compelled to rise in his place. He would have made the statement in the face of the attempted briber. He denied that he had any soreness against the Speaker of the House because he did not get the places he desired on Committees. He was interested in this matter because he believed the State had been robbed of $177,000 and he proposed to state his views honestly if he was the only man out of 128 who did.

WHAT SPEAKER COLE SAID.

The Speaker here said there had apparently been an effort on the part of some one to retard this investigation on the theory that some parties in the House, owing to personal animosity were endeavoring to persecute the Speaker. He hoped the investigation would not stop in any way on his account. He desired it to be thorough and searching.

FAIR TREATMENT DESIRED.

Ainsworth, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, said he simply desired fair treatment from the newspapers. After the Committee reported, if the report was not satisfactory, they could bury him. It had been stated that he and other members of the Committee had been bought and were ready to sign a white-washing report.

ABOUT REPORTERS, ETC.

Various members made remarks about newspapers, reporters, etc., and hard things were said.

REFERRED TO APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE.

The whole matter was then referred to the Appropriation Committee.

Business Transacted in the Senate and in the House of Representatives.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In the House today the Senate bill to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States in Panama was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Townsend introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for a special display of the farm products of the United States at the Paris Exposition.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

The House resumed consideration of the Smalls-Elliott contested election case. Mr. O'Ferral, of Virginia, a member of the Committee on Elections, defended the majority report. He answered the criticism made by Mr. Rowell, of Illinois, upon the election laws of South Carolina by the declaration that in many respects they were the laws framed under a Republican administration. It was a fair law, and similar to the law of almost every State in the Union.

WHAT MR. LEWIS SAID.

A study of the testimony, he said, would prove that there was no weight to be given to the charge of fraud by the Canvassing Board. Intimidation had been rife on the part of Smalls and his supporters, and the free exercise of the elective franchise had been trampled under foot by the man to whom the minority wished to give a seat on this floor.

IN THE U. S. SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In executive session of the Senate, this afternoon, Senator Plumb, from the Committee on Agriculture, favorably reported the nomination of Norman J. Colman, of Missouri, to be Secretary of Agriculture. Objection was made by a Republican Senator to consideration at this time, and a Democratic Senator then objected to admission of the nomination, and under the rule it went over until the next executive session. It is understood the nomination will be confirmed when it again comes before the Senate.

EDGERTON'S PROSPECTIVE SUCCESSOR.

The nomination of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Thompson to be Civil Service Commissioner in place of Edgerton, removed, and of First Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson, to be Judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, will be subject to the general rule adopted by the majority of the Senate respecting political nominations.

IN REFERENCE TO PRESSES.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Messrs. Hiscock and Harris, the Sub-Committee of the Senate Finance Committee, who have had under consideration for several months the question of supplanting the steam press plate printing machines in the bureau of engraving and printing by the re-introducing of hand machines, to-day reported to the full Committee adversely to the advocates of the proposed change. The report is made upon a House bill, which requires that the printing of stamps, notes and bonds shall be done in the highest style of art. The Sub-Committee say steam press work fulfils that requirement.

CAUCUS OF REP. SENATORS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—A caucus of Republican Senators was held this forenoon, at which the Southern question was discussed. A free interchange of opinion was had but nothing was decided upon differing from the general conclusion of the caucus last week.

The Government had posted a proclamation along the route from Tralee to Killarney forbidding the gathering of crowds. Mr. O'Brien wrs escorted by the military.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Indications for Wednesday: Much colder, clearing weather, westerly winds.

CBEVELAND'S LAW PARTNERS.

Mr. Cleveland has united his fortunes with those of a congenial law firm. The Democratic Brooklyn Eagle recently called to memory the fact that Francis L. Stetson, one of the partners, "got him as Governor to sign Jacob Sharp's Surface Railroad bill in 1884, a bill which Sharp paid $1,000,000 to get through the Legislature, on which he spent $500,000 more to induce the Aldermen to give to him the monopoly of Broadway, and for a ten minutes' brief on behalf of which he paid the same Mr. Stetson $10,000 in hand." If Mr. Cleveland wishes to find "big money" in the law business, he can feel assured of association with men who are not troubled with tender consciences when a big fee is to be made.

But the above is not all. The same firm are now engaged in defending a free trade trick as dishonest as the practice of undervaluations at the custom houses which has cast dishonor upon the outgoing administration. There is a duty on woolen goods and a lower duty on mixed goods. Some foreign concerns have been making beautiful woolen goods, working in a mere trifle of cotton. They sell the goods as all wool, but would put them through the custom house as "mixed," saving 5 cents a yard and 5 per cent ad valorem. There is a law which still puts on the higher duty, when "threads of other materials are introduced for the purpose of changing the classification." But these manufacturers do not insert cotton threads. They mix cotton with the wool of each thread, and then claim that such thread is not "of other materials." This petty trick has not yet been recognized by the Treasury Department, but Mr. Cleveland's firm is doing all it can to aid the importers. Mr. Cleveland's influence will not be as powerful for free trade in a law office as in the Presidency; there is little doubt that if he had been reelected he would have forced this construction of the law upon the trade of the country in a short time. The Treasury Department will soon change hands, and it is not believed that the firm will win their case. But what a congenial companion they will find in the author of two free-trade messages.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Mr. Cleveland did a very neat stroke of business yesterday. He not only approved the bill creating the new Cabinet office of Secretary of Agriculture, but sent to the Senate the nomination of Norman J. Colman of Missouri, present Commissioner of Agriculture, to be the first Secretary. This does not seem to have been anticipated, for the idea of being the first man to hold the office has given the place an extra attraction to Republican aspirants. There can be no serious objection, however, to the confirmation, as he will go out three weeks hence with the other gentlemen of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. It is asserted that Gen. Harrison has often spoken of Hon. Warner Miller as the right man for Secretary of Agriculture. The creation of this Department will, it is believed, give Gen. Harrison the opportunity to award two Cabinet places to New York. The impression still prevails that a Western man will receive the Treasury portfolio. New York in addition to the Agricultural Department, may get either the Navy, the Postoffice or the Attorney Generalship. The names most frequently mentioned for one of these places are those of Thomas C. Platt and William M. Evarts. Mr. Evarts was Attorney General under President Johnson, and has admirable qualities for that office. Mr. Platt's splendid business qualities fit him equally well for the arduous and responsible duties of Postmaster General.

The new Department of Agriculture has not been enlarged beyond the sphere of the Agricultural Bureau, but a Republican Congress will undoubtedly charge it with increased duties and responsibilities. The Signal Service Bureau, the General Land Office and the Bureau of Statistics of Labor could with entire propriety be transferred to this department, which would then become one of the most important under the government.

FIENDISH TORTURE.

The Olean Times tells a story of cruelty that outdoes the worst tales of White Capism. It occurred in the town of Napoli, Cattaraugus county, in the sugar-making season of 1888. A gang of farmers' sons, spending their nights among the sugar camps, had raided on the chickens of their neighbors until patience gave way, and a farm hand in the employ of one of them made a confession implicating the whole gang. The thieves professed penitence and paid for the chickens they had stolen, but planned a horrid vengeance on the man who had "squealed." Finding him alone in charge of his employer's camp one night, they framed a cross out of a tree and actually nailed him to it. They drove nails through the tips of his shoes and his clothing, and fastened his hands and arms by driving long nails on each side. In this way they pinioned him as firmly as if the nails had been driven through his flesh. They then erected the cross within three feet of fire, which they supplied with fresh fuel, poured a draught of bad whisky down his throat, and left him to the tortures of the flames and smoke, which blew directly into his face. After hours of agony he sank into unconsciousness, in which condition he was found the next day. He had hung upon the cross from eleven o'clock in the evening till ten in the morning. He was carried to the house of his employer, where he lay for weeks in a critical condition. He refused, however, to prosecute his tormentors, fearing that they might inflict still more cruel punishment. And this crime happened in a civilized community, in a county noted for its peacefulness and the good order and morality of its people. But it is in such communities that the White Caps had their origin.

NO INCREASE OF SALARIES.

The Republican Senators at Albany held a caucus last night, but came to no conclusion on the excise question though there was a long debate. Senator Hendricks favored the Excise Commission's bill, while Senator Vedder advocated his liquor tax bill. Other Senators favored a high license bill like the one presented in the Assembly by General Curtis. Another caucus, composed of Republicans of both Houses, is to be held, at which all proposed measures on the subject will receive consideration, and it is not unlikely that a committee will be appointed to frame a satisfactory bill.

The caucus developed so much opposition to the various schemes for increasing official salaries that Senator Vedder promised to withdraw his bill for the enlargement of the salaries of the Supreme Court Judges. It had been ascertained that scores of the ablest lawyers in the state were willing to take the places of the Judges at the present rate of pay. It is believed, however, that no Judge will resign, but that all of them will try to "worry along" on the $7,200 now paid them. Three or four will go out of office next fall, and an opportunity to test their willingness to be re-elected, or that of others to step into their shoes, will then be afforded. Very few of the men who contribute to the salaries of these public servants are in the enjoyment of equal incomes, and the Legislator who is asked to increase their pay has a healthy horror of what the opinion of his constituents would be concerning the act.

THE CLAYTON MURDER.

The Climax of a Continuous Political Crime—A Brief but Truthful History.

[From the Hartford Courant.]

To discuss and dismiss the murder of John M. Clayton as an isolated crime—one of those sudden, improbable, unpredictable outbreaks of savagery which occasionally occur in the most law-abiding communities—would be to utterly mistake its character and miss its lesson.

Rightly looked at, this cowardly assassination is seen to be part of a continuous criminal transaction, an episode in a long history of lawlessness and violence, the climax of a series of aggressions upon the rights of the citizens and the sanctity of the suffrage. The conditions that made it possible and probable, the events that led directly up to it, are alike matters of common notoriety.

To go no further back than last September, we have the spectacle of a Democratic political club converting itself into a military company, furnished with arms by the Governor of Arkansas, and parading around town to intimidate the negroes. Mr. Benjamin, a leading lawyer of Little Rock, goes to Morrilton to see fair-play in the election; as he steps from the train he is attacked by a mob and receives injuries from which he died not long after. On election day the Republican judges of election go to the polling place only to find themselves excluded. When they attempt to open polls elsewhere, Democratic deputy sheriffs compel them to desist. The voting over, one of the Democratic election judges takes the ballot box and carries it around town with him until 9 o'clock in the evening, followed at every step by the faithful federal Supervisor of Elections, whom he finds it impossible to shake off. Finally he returns the box to its place and goes away. The Supervisor and one of the Democratic Judges remain in the room. Half an hour afterward four masked men rush in with leveled revolvers, compel the Supervisor and his companion to face the wall, and then carry off the box and the poll books. Not long after some one fires a shot through the window at the Supervisor, as he sits at the card table in the back office of one of the local physicians, wounding him but, happily, not killing him. He takes the hint and the next train for Little Rock. Colonel Clayton, the Republican candidate for Congress, decides to contest the seat. It is clear to him that any agent of his, going to Plummerville to take testimony in his behalf, will run serious personal risks. Like the brave man he is, he goes there himself. The lurking assassin again creeps up to the window, takes surer aim this time, and the contest, so far as Colonel Clayton is concerned, is over. Mr. Breckinridge, his certified Democratic competitor, is deeply shocked and grieved, the newspapers of the state express appropriate sentiments of horror and indignation, eloquent speeches are made in the Legislature at Little Rock, and a reward is offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Arkansas will discharge but half of her duty to herself if she stops with the arrest and conviction of the murderer. The more important thing for Arkansas is to get rid of the evil conditions which produce such murders as naturally and certainly as the tree produces its fruit.

THE EVENING PAPER.

It Publishes the News of the Same Day—Gaining on the Morning Paper.

[From the Syracuse Journal.]

Mr. W. E. Gardner, associate editor of the Evening Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wis., a bright, enterprising and wide-awake journalist, read a paper before the Press Association of that state, which is now published, contrasting the evening paper with the morning paper, and arguing the advantages of the former in a most thorough and convincing manner. He discusses the kind of newspaper that sells, the circulation and influence of newspapers, the telegraphic and other news facilities, special advantages of each class, the morning and the evening paper, and he arrives at conclusions largely favorable to the evening paper. The great fact brought out is, that the evening paper gives the news of to-day, the morning paper the news of yesterday. The evening paper has rapidly increased in numbers, in circulation and in influence. Stated by per centages, the record stands: In the United States, in 1870 there were 52 per cent morning, to 48 per cent evening; in 1880, only 45 per cent morning and 55 per cent evening; in 1888, a trifle more than 39 per cent morning, and almost 61 per cent evening. In the state of New York, outside of the city of New York, the evening papers are not only more numerous, but in almost every city they far exceed in circulation the morning papers. The evening papers are as a rule the better family papers, and as the mass of the people have more time to read in the later than in the earlier hours of the day, naturally they prefer the paper that brings them the latest news, the best reading, and at the time most convenient. We know of but one considerable city in the state, aside from New York city, where morning papers have an equal circulation with the evening papers; in most of them it is at least two to one in favor of the evening issues.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

CBEVELAND'S LAW PARTNERS.

Mr. Cleveland has united his fortunes with those of a congenial law firm. The Democratic Brooklyn Eagle recently called to memory the fact that Francis L. Stetson, one of the partners, "got him as Governor to sign Jacob Sharp's Surface Railroad bill in 1884, a bill which Sharp paid $1,000,000 to get through the Legislature, on which he spent $500,000 more to induce the Aldermen to give to him the monopoly of Broadway, and for a ten minutes' brief on behalf of which he paid the same Mr. Stetson $10,000 in hand." If Mr. Cleveland wishes to find "big money" in the law business, he can feel assured of association with men who are not troubled with tender consciences when a big fee is to be made.

But the above is not all. The same firm are now engaged in defending a free trade trick as dishonest as the practice of undervaluations at the custom houses which has cast dishonor upon the outgoing administration. There is a duty on woolen goods and a lower duty on mixed goods. Some foreign concerns have been making beautiful woolen goods, working in a mere trifle of cotton. They sell the goods as all wool, but would put them through the custom house as "mixed," saving 5 cents a yard and 5 per cent ad valorem. There is a law which still puts on the higher duty, when "threads of other materials are introduced for the purpose of changing the classification." But these manufacturers do not insert cotton threads. They mix cotton with the wool of each thread, and then claim that such thread is not "of other materials." This petty trick has not yet been recognized by the Treasury Department, but Mr. Cleveland's firm is doing all it can to aid the importers. Mr. Cleveland's influence will not be as powerful for free trade in a law office as in the Presidency; there is little doubt that if he had been reelected he would have forced this construction of the law upon the trade of the country in a short time. The Treasury Department will soon change hands, and it is not believed that the firm will win their case. But what a congenial companion they will find in the author of two free-trade messages.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Mr. Cleveland did a very neat stroke of business yesterday. He not only approved the bill creating the new Cabinet office of Secretary of Agriculture, but sent to the Senate the nomination of Norman J. Colman of Missouri, present Commissioner of Agriculture, to be the first Secretary. This does not seem to have been anticipated, for the idea of being the first man to hold the office has given the place an extra attraction to Republican aspirants. There can be no serious objection, however, to the confirmation, as he will go out three weeks hence with the other gentlemen of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. It is asserted that Gen. Harrison has often spoken of Hon. Warner Miller as the right man for Secretary of Agriculture. The creation of this Department will, it is believed, give Gen. Harrison the opportunity to award two Cabinet places to New York. The impression still prevails that a Western man will receive the Treasury portfolio. New York in addition to the Agricultural Department, may get either the Navy, the Postoffice or the Attorney Generalship. The names most frequently mentioned for one of these places are those of Thomas C. Platt and William M. Evarts. Mr. Evarts was Attorney General under President Johnson, and has admirable qualities for that office. Mr. Platt's splendid business qualities fit him equally well for the arduous and responsible duties of Postmaster General.

The new Department of Agriculture has not been enlarged beyond the sphere of the Agricultural Bureau, but a Republican Congress will undoubtedly charge it with increased duties and responsibilities. The Signal Service Bureau, the General Land Office and the Bureau of Statistics of Labor could with entire propriety be transferred to this department, which would then become one of the most important under the government.

FIENDISH TORTURE.

The Olean Times tells a story of cruelty that outdoes the worst tales of White Capism. It occurred in the town of Napoli, Cattaraugus county, in the sugar-making season of 1888. A gang of farmers' sons, spending their nights among the sugar camps, had raided on the chickens of their neighbors until patience gave way, and a farm hand in the employ of one of them made a confession implicating the whole gang. The thieves professed penitence and paid for the chickens they had stolen, but planned a horrid vengeance on the man who had "squealed." Finding him alone in charge of his employer's camp one night, they framed a cross out of a tree and actually nailed him to it. They drove nails through the tips of his shoes and his clothing, and fastened his hands and arms by driving long nails on each side. In this way they pinioned him as firmly as if the nails had been driven through his flesh. They then erected the cross within three feet of fire, which they supplied with fresh fuel, poured a draught of bad whisky down his throat, and left him to the tortures of the flames and smoke, which blew directly into his face. After hours of agony he sank into unconsciousness, in which condition he was found the next day. He had hung upon the cross from eleven o'clock in the evening till ten in the morning. He was carried to the house of his employer, where he lay for weeks in a critical condition. He refused, however, to prosecute his tormentors, fearing that they might inflict still more cruel punishment. And this crime happened in a civilized community, in a county noted for its peacefulness and the good order and morality of its people. But it is in such communities that the White Caps had their origin.

NO INCREASE OF SALARIES.

The Republican Senators at Albany held a caucus last night, but came to no conclusion on the excise question though there was a long debate. Senator Hendricks favored the Excise Commission's bill, while Senator Vedder advocated his liquor tax bill. Other Senators favored a high license bill like the one presented in the Assembly by General Curtis. Another caucus, composed of Republicans of both Houses, is to be held, at which all proposed measures on the subject will receive consideration, and it is not unlikely that a committee will be appointed to frame a satisfactory bill.

The caucus developed so much opposition to the various schemes for increasing official salaries that Senator Vedder promised to withdraw his bill for the enlargement of the salaries of the Supreme Court Judges. It had been ascertained that scores of the ablest lawyers in the state were willing to take the places of the Judges at the present rate of pay. It is believed, however, that no Judge will resign, but that all of them will try to "worry along" on the $7,200 now paid them. Three or four will go out of office next fall, and an opportunity to test their willingness to be re-elected, or that of others to step into their shoes, will then be afforded. Very few of the men who contribute to the salaries of these public servants are in the enjoyment of equal incomes, and the Legislator who is asked to increase their pay has a healthy horror of what the opinion of his constituents would be concerning the act.

THE CLAYTON MURDER.

The Climax of a Continuous Political Crime —A Brief but Truthful History.

[From the Hartford Courant.]

To discuss and dismiss the murder of John M. Clayton as an isolated crime—one of those sudden, improbable, unpredictable outbreaks of savagery which occasionally occur in the most law-abiding communities—would be to utterly mistake its character and miss its lesson.

Rightly looked at, this cowardly assassination is seen to be part of a continuous criminal transaction, an episode in a long history of lawlessness and violence, the climax of a series of aggressions upon the rights of the citizens and the sanctity of the suffrage. The conditions that made it possible and probable, the events that led directly up to it, are alike matters of common notoriety.

To go no further back than last September, we have the spectacle of a Democratic political club converting itself into a military company, furnished with arms by the Governor of Arkansas, and parading around town to intimidate the negroes. Mr. Benjamin, a leading lawyer of Little Rock, goes to Morrilton to see fair-play in the election; as he steps from the train he is attacked by a mob and receives injuries from which he died not long after. On election day the Republican judges of election go to the polling place only to find themselves excluded. When they attempt to open polls elsewhere, Democratic deputy sheriffs compel them to desist. The voting over, one of the Democratic election judges takes the ballot box and carries it around town with him until 9 o'clock in the evening, followed at every step by the faithful federal Supervisor of Elections, whom he finds it impossible to shake off. Finally he returns the box to its place and goes away. The Supervisor and one of the Democratic Judges remain in the room. Half an hour afterward four masked men rush in with leveled revolvers, compel the Supervisor and his companion to face the wall, and then carry off the box and the poll books. Not long after some one fires a shot through the window at the Supervisor, as he sits at the card table in the back office of one of the local physicians, wounding him but, happily, not killing him. He takes the hint and the next train for Little Rock. Colonel Clayton, the Republican candidate for Congress, decides to contest the seat. It is clear to him that any agent of his, going to Plummerville to take testimony in his behalf, will run serious personal risks. Like the brave man he is, he goes there himself. The lurking assassin again creeps up to the window, takes surer aim this time, and the contest, so far as Colonel Clayton is concerned, is over. Mr. Breckinridge, his certified Democratic competitor, is deeply shocked and grieved, the newspapers of the state express appropriate sentiments of horror and indignation, eloquent speeches are made in the Legislature at Little Rock, and a reward is offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Arkansas will discharge but half of her duty to herself if she stops with the arrest and conviction of the murderer. The more important thing for Arkansas is to get rid of the evil conditions which produce such murders as naturally and certainly as the tree produces its fruit.

THE EVENING PAPER.

It Publishes the News of the Same Day—Gaining on the Morning Paper.

[From the Syracuse Journal.]

Mr. W. E. Gardner, associate editor of the Evening Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wis., a bright, enterprising and wide-awake journalist, read a paper before the Press Association of that state, which is now published, contrasting the evening paper with the morning paper, and arguing the advantages of the former in a most thorough and convincing manner. He discusses the kind of newspaper that sells, the circulation and influence of newspapers, the telegraphic and other news facilities, special advantages of each class, the morning and the evening paper, and he arrives at conclusions largely favorable to the evening paper. The great fact brought out is, that the evening paper gives the news of to-day, the morning paper the news of yesterday. The evening paper has rapidly increased in numbers, in circulation and in influence. Stated by per centages, the record stands: In the United States, in 1870 there were 52 per cent morning, to 48 per cent evening; in 1880, only 45 per cent morning and 55 per cent evening; in 1888, a trifle more than 39 per cent morning, and almost 61 per cent evening. In the state of New York, outside of the city of New York, the evening papers are not only more numerous, but in almost every city they far exceed in circulation the morning papers. The evening papers are as a rule the better family papers, and as the mass of the people have more time to read in the later than in the earlier hours of the day, naturally they prefer the paper that brings them the latest news, the best reading, and at the time most convenient. We know of but one considerable city in the state, aside from New York city, where morning papers have an equal circulation with the evening papers; in most of them it is at least two to one in favor of the evening issues.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not, Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

Good, square, honest goods. Hop Plasters never fail when applied to soreness or weakness.

A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this County. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Van Deusen Bros. and F. J. R. Clarke's drug stores.

MY WIFE SAID

To me last night: How much do you suppose we have paid out for doctors and medicine in the last year? I told her I did not know. To doctors I have paid nothing, and five dollars' worth of Sulphur Bitters has kept health in our family. L. Andrews, 12 Bowdoin-street, Boston.

GATHERED ROSES.

"We thought her dying when she slept
And sleeping when she died."

But the bitterest sting of such a sorrow is to think she might have been saved! They saw the rose fade on her cheek and the eyes grow dim. Had they but known of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, who can tell but she might still be with them, the sunshine of their home. Take the remedy in time, and you will find that consumption [which is scrofula of the lungs] can be cured.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy-cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

For all the diseases of the Throat and Lungs, no remedy is so safe, speedy and certain as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. An indispensable family medicine.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend the Favorite Remedy. It was

A MARVELOUS RECOVERY

and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

RIKER'S

EXPECTORANT.

Acknowledged by all who have used it to be the most wonderful cure in the world for Coughs and Colds.

Is warranted to cure any ordinary cough or cold or your money is returned. A pleasant, swift and sure cure for Coughs and Colds.

If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat, occasioned by a cold, four to six doses will cure.

It won't cure a horrible sore throat in one night, nor in fact will it cure anything in that space of time. It takes at least a day or so to cure a cold, but

IT GETS THERE ALL THE SAME.

It stops your cough almost at once, but should you stop taking it after two or three doses probably your cough would return. One thing you can always be sure of: Long before you have emptied the bottle you will be "all O. K."

As a trial of this truly wonderful medicine costs nothing, and as 95 cases out of every 100 will be cured it is well worth your while to at least make the trial.

MINNEAPOLIS SERVANT GIRL'S BRAVERY

Burglars Who Were Prevented From Carrying Out Their Nefarious Work.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 12.—A servant girl at the house of A. M. Crettenden prevented the house from being robbed last night. The girl had been left alone to take care of a child while the family were out. At about 10:30 o'clock she heard a noise at the rear door, and a moment later the glass in the door was broken, and she heard some one fumbling at the bolt. She ran quickly up-stairs, secured a revolver and rushing to the window over the door, pointed it downward and fired. She heard two men shout, one of them evidently in pain. She waited and saw two men, one supporting the other, who was holding his arm as if it were hurt, hurrying away. When the family returned, investigation showed that the bullet had done good work, as there was a pool of blood on the door-step.

FRANCE'S NEW METHOD OF VOTING

Causes the Opportunist Journals to Bubble Over with Joy To-day.

By Cable to The Freeman.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—The adoption by the Chamber of Deputies of the Scrutin D' Arrondissement bill has afforded much gratification to the opportunist journals. The Republique Francaiz says: "We armed the Republic yesterday. We will not disarm it tomorrow by voting for a revision of the Constitution." The Journal Des Debats says: "The establishment of the Scrutin D' Arrondissement system of voting can only result favorably with a moderate Cabinet in office." The Radical journals fear the consequences that will follow the adoption of the measure. The Monarchical and Boulangist papers declare that the action of the Chamber in passing the bill will not change the verdict of the electors, who, they say, do not desire any more parliamentarism.

A Wrestling Match.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WORCESTER, Mass., Feb. 12.—One of the most exciting wrestling matches ever seen in this City was that at the Rink, last night. The contestants were Duncan C. Ross, champion mixed wrestler; John Graham, and the champion of England, and H. M. Dufur, champion collar and elbow wrestler. The articles called for 27 falls and the man winning the greatest number was to be winner of the match, the purse of $450 and the entire gate receipts. The wrestlers were to contend with each other in three hours, collar and elbow, Cumberland style, and catch as catch can, giving an exhibition of the favorite style of each. Ross and Graham had won five bouts each, and Dufur four, when the management thought a postponement was necessary, and, amid the howls of those present, the announcement was made. To-night the affair will be concluded.

Mary Anderson's Scenic Artist in Trouble.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—At about midnight, in the Commercial Hotel, commotion was created by the piercing screams of a woman. William F. Doran, scenic artist for Mary Anderson, was found to be beating his wife, who is known on the stage as "Clara Russell," also of the same company. The proprietor of the hotel ejected Doran and Miss Russell, with her face badly bruised and disfigured. The pair were married three weeks ago. Miss Russell says Doran is insanely jealous.

Were These Watches Stolen?

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BUFFALO, Feb. 12.—A youngman is under arrest here who had in his possession four valuable gold watches. He refused to give any account of himself, but is supposed to be from the West. One watch bears the name "H. J. Keena," another has the initials "H. W." and another the inscription "W. F. Riedy, from his father." The prisoner now gives his name as Thomas Brown, and will be held until the owners of the watches are found.

An Earthquake, Probably.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

EDMONTON, N. W. T., Feb. 12.—Last Thursday a loud noise like the report of a cannon, followed by a rumbling noise like thunder, apparently underground, was heard by many people in the town and surrounding country. At Stoney Plain, 15 miles from here, it was most audible. Some persons felt a slight trembling of the earth.

The Des Moines River Land Bill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Feb. 12.—The receipt of the news of the passage of the Des Moines River land bill caused little interest here. Snell, the owner of most of the lands, regards it as of no consequence, as previous decisions of the United States Supreme Court have confirmed the title.

A Valentine.

[Frank Dempster Sherman, in the Century.]

Love, at your door young Cupid stands
And knocks for you to come;
The frost is in his feet and hands,
His lips with cold are numb.
Grant him admittance, sweetheart mine,
And by your cheering fire
His lips shall loosen as with wine
And speak forth my desire.

He left me not an hour ago,
And when the rascal went
Barefooted out into the snow
I asked him whither bent.
Quoth he: "To her whose face is like
A garden full of flowers,
To her whose smiles like sunlight strike
Across the winter hours."

No more he said, nor need of more
Had I to know. I knew
His path lay straight unto your door—
That face belongs to you.
"Godspeed," I cried, "and give her this
When you her face shall see;"
And on his lips I set a kiss,
A Valentine from me!

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

"I speak within bounds, sir," said the prisoner in the dock, when addressing the jury. We speak knowingly when we declare with enthusiasm the great benefits of Dr. Bull's famous Cough Syrup.

RHEUMATISM

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Lyman Crawford, Druggist, of Springfield, Mass., says: For years I was afflicted with kidney disease in its worst form, and I state, with a perfect recollection of all that was done for me, that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., gave me permanent relief.

If your druggist does not keep the medicine, address the proprietor, Rondout, N. Y.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

TRY, TRY AGAIN.

After trying many advertised remedies for catarrh during the past twelve years I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and with complete success. It is over one year since I stopped using it and have had no return of the catarrh. I recommend it to all my friends in this vicinity. Milton T. Palm, Reading, Pa.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—A positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

Hardly wise to suffer pain when a Hop Plaster acts instantly and pleases the wearer.

A FEW POINTERS.

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. The disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough, which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 50c. and $1. Trial size free. For sale by all druggists.

"I am little, I know, but I think I can throw a weight of a hundred ton." So sang a proud banana peel. But Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are quite as powerful in meeting with and overthrowing disease. If you have rush of blood to the brain, dizziness, headache, constipation or biliousness, buy a vial of these pills at once. One a dose.

THE BLOOD

Is the source of health; therefore, to keep it well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action also upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system scrofula, humors, impure particles and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs. A trial will convince you that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid; at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; eyes weak, watery and inflammable; ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs and ulcers; voice changed and nasal twang; breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; is there a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility? If you have all or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Nasal Catarrh. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians. The manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer, in good faith, a reward of $500 for a case of this disease which they cannot cure. The remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

The action of Carter's Little Liver Pills is pleasant, mild and natural. They gently stimulate the liver, and regulate the bowels, but do not purge. They are sure to please. Try them.

IT IS USELESS

for young ladies who are troubled with freckles, pimples, moth and tan and a bad skin generally to use liquid paints or dry powders, for they only make the skin look well for the time being. To have a good complexion you must have pure blood. Use Sulphur Bitters and your skin will be fair and complexion rosy.—Young Ladies' Magazine.

Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They first make you sick and then leave you constipated. Carter's Little Liver Pills regulate the bowels and make you well. Dose, one pill.

ABOUT COCKROACHES ET AL.

"The cockroaches in this house are remarkably versatile," said an actor at a hotel table, picking up a biscuit. "I notice that they appear in different rolls every morning." Caroline Jones, of Columbia, Pa., appears in the role of a public benefactor. She says: "Dr. Tutt's Pills have conferred a great blessing upon females sick with headache and indigestion. We've fallen in love with these pills here." They have won the love of people in all sections.

A beautiful young lady became so sadly disfigured with pimples and blotches that it was feared she would die of grief. A friend recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which she took, and was completely cured. She is now one of the fairest of the fair.

KISSING GOES BY FAVOR,

But Hop Ointment goes for chapped hands, sore noses, cold cracks, etc., without fear or favor. Never fails. All druggists sell it at 25 cents a box.

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug stores.

OUTSPOKEN SCIENCE.

The following statement came voluntarily to the proprietors of the great preparation of which it speaks. They have never had the pleasure of meeting the eminent scientist who wrote it, but appreciate the honest candor which prompted it:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This may certify that as the result of extended researches I am able to state that, in the Duffy Malt Whiskey alone, there is to be had such a pure article as I have described in my paper on "A Scientific Specific for Intemperance," in the North American Review for July, 1888. It is, of course, a well-known fact that we may procure, as a laboratory product a whiskey that shall be free of fusil oil; but it is with pride that I state that alone of commercial whiskies the Duffy Malt declines to injure the brain and the system.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend the Favorite Remedy. It was and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat, occasioned by a cold, four to six doses will cure.

It won't cure a horrible sore throat in one night, nor in fact will it cure anything in that space of time. It takes at least a day or so to cure a cold, but

IT GETS THERE ALL THE SAME.

It stops your cough almost at once, but should you stop taking it after two or three doses probably your cough would return. One thing you can always be sure of: Long before you have emptied the bottle you will be "all O. K."

As a trial of this truly wonderful medicine costs nothing, and as 95 cases out of every 100 will be cured it is well worth your while to at least make the trial.

MINNEAPOLIS SERVANT GIRL'S BRAVERY

Burglars Who Were Prevented From Carrying Out Their Nefarious Work.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 12.—A servant girl at the house of A. M. Crettenden prevented the house from being robbed last night. The girl had been left alone to take care of a child while the family were out. At about 10:30 o'clock she heard a noise at the rear door, and a moment later the glass in the door was broken, and she heard some one fumbling at the bolt. She ran quickly up-stairs, secured a revolver and rushing to the window over the door, pointed it downward and fired. She heard two men shout, one of them evidently in pain. She waited and saw two men, one supporting the other, who was holding his arm as if it were hurt, hurrying away. When the family returned, investigation showed that the bullet had done good work, as there was a pool of blood on the door-step.

FRANCE'S NEW METHOD OF VOTING

Causes the Opportunist Journals to Bubble Over with Joy To-day.

By Cable to The Freeman.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—The adoption by the Chamber of Deputies of the Scrutin D' Arrondissement bill has afforded much gratification to the opportunist journals. The Republique Francaiz says: "We armed the Republic yesterday. We will not disarm it tomorrow by voting for a revision of the Constitution." The Journal Des Debats says: "The establishment of the Scrutin D' Arrondissement system of voting can only result favorably with a moderate Cabinet in office." The Radical journals fear the consequences that will follow the adoption of the measure. The Monarchical and Boulangist papers declare that the action of the Chamber in passing the bill will not change the verdict of the electors, who, they say, do not desire any more parliamentarism.

A Wrestling Match.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WORCESTER, Mass., Feb. 12.—One of the most exciting wrestling matches ever seen in this City was that at the Rink, last night. The contestants were Duncan C. Ross, champion mixed wrestler; John Graham, and the champion of England, and H. M. Dufur, champion collar and elbow wrestler. The articles called for 27 falls and the man winning the greatest number was to be winner of the match, the purse of $450 and the entire gate receipts. The wrestlers were to contend with each other in three hours, collar and elbow, Cumberland style, and catch as catch can, giving an exhibition of the favorite style of each. Ross and Graham had won five bouts each, and Dufur four, when the management thought a postponement was necessary, and, amid the howls of those present, the announcement was made. To-night the affair will be concluded.

Mary Anderson's Scenic Artist in Trouble.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—At about midnight, in the Commercial Hotel, commotion was created by the piercing screams of a woman. William F. Doran, scenic artist for Mary Anderson, was found to be beating his wife, who is known on the stage as "Clara Russell," also of the same company. The proprietor of the hotel ejected Doran and Miss Russell, with her face badly bruised and disfigured. The pair were married three weeks ago. Miss Russell says Doran is insanely jealous.

The prisoner now gives his name as Thomas Brown, and will be held until the owners of the watches are found.

At Stoney Plain, 15 miles from here, it was most audible. Some persons felt a slight trembling of the earth.

The Des Moines River Land Bill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

A Valentine.

[Frank Dempster Sherman, in the Century.]

Love, at your door young Cupid stands
 And knocks for you to come;
The frost is in his feet and hands,
 His lips with cold are numb.
Grant him admittance, sweetheart mine,
 And by your cheering fire
His lips shall loosen as with wine
 And speak forth my desire.

He left me not an hour ago,
 And when the rascal went
Barefooted out into the snow
 I asked him whither bent.
Quoth he: "To her whose face is like
 A garden full of flowers,
To her whose smiles like sunlight strike
 Across the winter hours."

No more he said, nor need of more
 Had I to know. I knew
His path lay straight unto your door—
 That face belongs to you.
"Godspeed," I cried, "and give her this
 When you her face shall see;"
And on his lips I set a kiss,
 A Valentine from me!

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

"I speak within bounds, sir," said the prisoner in the dock, when addressing the jury. We speak knowingly when we declare with enthusiasm the great benefits of Dr. Bull's famous Cough Syrup.

RHEUMATISM

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Lyman Crawford, Druggist, of Springfield, Mass., says: For years I was afflicted with kidney disease in its worst form, and I state, with a perfect recollection of all that was done for me, that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., gave me permanent relief.

If your druggist does not keep the medicine, address the proprietor, Rondout, N. Y.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

TRY, TRY AGAIN.

After trying many advertised remedies for catarrh during the past twelve years I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and with complete success. It is over one year since I stopped using it and have had no return of the catarrh. I recommend it to all my friends in this vicinity. Milton T. Palm, Reading, Pa.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—A positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

Hardly wise to suffer pain when a Hop Plaster acts instantly and pleases the wearer.

A FEW POINTERS.

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. The disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough, which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 50c. and $1. Trial size free. For sale by all druggists.

"I am little, I know, but I think I can throw a weight of a hundred ton." So sang a proud banana peel. But Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are quite as powerful in meeting with and overthrowing disease. If you have rush of blood to the brain, dizziness, headache, constipation or biliousness, buy a vial of these pills at once. One a dose.

THE BLOOD

Is the source of health; therefore, to keep it well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action also upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system scrofula, humors, impure particles and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs. A trial will convince you that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid; at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; eyes weak, watery and inflammable; ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs and ulcers; voice changed and nasal twang; breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; is there a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility? If you have all or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Nasal Catarrh. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians. The manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer, in good faith, a reward of $500 for a case of this disease which they cannot cure. The remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke. Kingston.

The action of Carter's Little Liver Pills is pleasant, mild and natural. They gently stimulate the liver, and regulate the bowels, but do not purge. They are sure to please. Try them.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

IT IS USELESS

for young ladies who are troubled with freckles, pimples, moth and tan and a bad skin generally to use liquid paints or dry powders, for they only make the skin look well for the time being. To have a good complexion you must have pure blood. Use Sulphur Bitters and your skin will be fair and complexion rosy.—Young Ladies' Magazine.

Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They first make you sick and then leave you constipated. Carter's Little Liver Pills regulate the bowels and make you well. Dose, one pill.

"HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

ABOUT COCKROACHES ET AL.

"The cockroaches in this house are remarkably versatile," said an actor at a hotel table, picking up a biscuit. "I notice that they appear in different rolls every morning." Caroline Jones, of Columbia, Pa., appears in the role of a public benefactor. She says: "Dr. Tutt's Pills have conferred a great blessing upon females sick with headache and indigestion. We've fallen in love with these pills here." They have won the love of people in all sections.

A beautiful young lady became so sadly disfigured with pimples and blotches that it was feared she would die of grief. A friend recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which she took, and was completely cured. She is now one of the fairest of the fair.

KISSING GOES BY FAVOR.

But Hop Ointment goes for chapped hands, sore noses, cold cracks, etc., without fear or favor. Never fails. All druggists sell it at 25 cents a box.

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug stores.

OUTSPOKEN SCIENCE.

The following statement came voluntarily to the proprietors of the great preparation of which it speaks. They have never had the pleasure of meeting the eminent scientist who wrote it, but appreciate the honest candor which prompted it:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This may certify that as the result of extended researches I am able to state that, in the Duffy Malt Whiskey alone, there is to be had such a pure article as I have described in my paper on "A Scientific Specific for Intemperance," in the North American Review for July, 1888. It is, of course, a well-known fact that we may procure, as a laboratory product a whiskey that shall be free of fusil oil; but it is with pride that I state that alone of commercial whiskies the Duffy Malt declines to injure the brain and the system.

Skating on the Rondout Creek has been dangerous thus far this winter, but fortunately no serious accidents have been reported.

Young men "played" on a kettle drum at an unseemly hour on Abeel-street, Rondout, last night. In any other place of the size of this they would have been "run in" by the police for disorderly conduct.

The members of the Supervisors' Committee on Addition to the County Clerk's and Surrogate's building, Kingston, have awarded the contract for the erection of the addition to Darling Brothers & Burger, they being the lowest bidders, the work to be completed by September 1.

NOTES ABOUT ICE AND "ICE MEN."

What is Being Done 'Long Shore and Up in the Catskill Mountains.

At and near Albany an excellent crop of ice is being harvested.

Twenty-six car loads of ice reached Rondout last night, from South Gilboa, via. the Ulster & Delaware Railroad.

The "harvest" was begun at Hudson and points north to-day. The cakes measure from six to 10 inches in thickness.

The work of filling the Knickerbocker Ice Company's houses at Esopus, with ice from the Esopus Pond, has been commenced.

The correspondent of THE FREEMAN, at Lexington, in the Catskill Mountains, writes: "Ice houses at this place have been filled with a fine quality of ice, from 10 to 13 inches in thickness."

William McGinnis, of Rondout, began the work of cutting ice on the Kingston Point flats to-day, but was compelled to desist after a short time on account of the ice near the shore giving way, thus preventing sleighs from running on and off the ice. A bridge will be built from the shore to the ice. The ice on the flat is seven and eight inches in thickness.

THE CASUALTY RECORD HEREABOUT.

A Rondout Lady's Serious Fall—Accidents in Near-by Places Noted.

A seven-year-old Port-Jervis boy, named Henry Barker, fell from a tree, on Friday, and his head struck on a curb-stone. He may die.

There were three accidents on the Erie Railroad on Sunday and Monday. Two men each had one of their hands smashed, and a third man was thrown from the top of a moving train and was badly injured.

About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. S. Staples, of Rondout, started to go home from the residence of John McCausland, on Union-avenue, where she had made a call. She slipped on the ice and her left limb was broken. Mrs. McCausland went to her aid. The attention of a gentleman in a sleigh was called, and Mrs. Staples was carried to her home. Drs. Augustus and Frederick Huhne reduced the fracture.

A Point of Law Well Taken.

Charles Beaumont, of Wilbur, was arraigned before Recorder Hussey, this forenoon, charged with assaulting a young man named Edward Sandford. Beaumont's counsel asked the discharge of his client on the ground that the officer who arrested him had no right to take him to jail before being arraigned before a magistrate for an examination. The Recorder said the point of law was well taken, and he discharged Beaumont.

Escape of Natural Gas.

A dispatch from Troy to THE FREEMAN this afternoon stated: "Natural gas escapes at Schroon Lake. There is a lime rock ledge running through the village, and it crops out at the mouth of a small brook, in front of which gas appears. A man froze a barrel into the ice and then attached a gas burner to it and lighted the gas, which burned for 48 hours."

Haverly-Cleveland Minstrels—Mrs. Shaw, Whistler—Bartley Campbell's "Fate."

The Haverly-Cleveland Minstrels have been booked to appear in Kingston Opera House, on Wednesday evening, February 20. This is the largest and best minstrel troupe "on the road." In all there are 60 performers.

The members of Cornell Hose Company, of Rondout, held a meeting, last night, at which it was decided that a promenade concert be given at the Academy of Music, on February 27, under the auspices of the organization. Select music, by an orchestra of 20 pieces, under the direction of Professor Williams, will be a leading feature of the event.

The following has been printed about Mrs. Alice J. Shaw, whistler, who will appear in Kingston Opera House on Monday night: "She has a whole aviary and a whole orchestra of reed intruments in her mouth. Her whistle is a most comprehensive intrument, capable of stress, swell, staccatos, trills and tremolos, with a range of two and a-half octaves. That is a technical description of her powers. To be colloquial: Her labial music has been compared to Niagara for volume and power. To the soughing of the west wind through the tree-tops for softness. To the soaring bombshell for rapidity. To the 'untutored saw-buzzer' when rendering Wagner. To the saucy bobolink for pertness."

Concerning Miss Lamar, who will appear in Bartley Campbell's "Fate," at Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, on Friday night, the New-York Evening Sun has said this: "Though somewhat above the average height, her movement is always naturally lithe and graceful. In many of the brighter passages of the piece her delicate, refined countenance is often animated with a very winsome and playful expression, and seldom, if at all, grows oppressively languid or dull. While there may be room for improvement in Miss Lamar's present endeavors, she certainly exhibits unusual promise and capability. Her conception is generally accurate and thoroughly intelligent. The supporting people are uniformly good."

NOTES ABOUT CURRENT LITERATURE.

A Newburgh Man's Book of Poems—The Railway Mail Service—"Vagabond Tales."

Wide Awake has this year taken a new hold on popularity—if such a thing could be possible.

Branard Emery, of Newburgh, has published a volume of poems. The edition is limited to 114 copies.

The City of Treves, Germany, founded 2,004 years before Christ, and later, for a century, capital of the Roman Empire, will be described in the March Scribner by Professor W. B. Scott, of Princeton, who has recently made a careful study of its antiquities.

Professor Boyesen's "Vagabond Tales," in press by D. Lothrop Company, of Boston, Mass., is an engaging collection of this popular story-teller's recent "novellettes." No writer living—scarcely excepting even the great Bjornstein—so thoroughly understands the Norse character and when into this is infused the American element, the success of Professor Boyesen's tales is easily understood. Some of the stories taken into this collection have already been translated into French, German and Spanish.

Thomas L. James, Postmaster-General in Garfield's Cabinet, will contribute his first magazine article to the March Scribner—entitled "The Railway Mail Service." He will concisely and entertainingly describe the evolution of mail-carrying in this country, from the days of the colonial carrier, with the letters in his saddle-bags, to the modern fast mail train. A graphic account will then be given of the actual work done on the most important mail trains in the country, describing the skill and dexterity of a corps of trained mail clerks.

Nearly all the Methodist churches in Ulster and adjoining counties will greatly increase their membership this winter. Many revivals have been held.

The second annual State Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, of New-York State, to be held in Newburgh, beginning Friday evening, promises to be interesting.

William Blakie, author of "How to Get Stong," will lecture in the chapel of the Rondout Baptist Church, on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Affairs of Local Railroads.

The extension of the Ontario & Western Railroad, near New-Berlin, was opened for traffic on Saturday.

The Erie Railroad Company is experiencing dull times. Few coal and freight shipments are being made and the passenger business is light.

The correspondent of THE FREEMAN at Oneonta writes: "Thirty workmen at the railroad shops have been 'laid off.' The remainder are working eight hours a day. New-Yorkers were in town this week looking over the proposed Oneida-Oneonta railroad."

Republicans to Meet.

The members of the Republican City Committee will hold a meeting at the City Hall on Friday night.

Eighteen districts, comprising 170 fields, have been entirely canvassed and reported, and 12 districts, comprising 115 fields, partially canvassed. There are still about 1,000 families not visited and have not yet been reached through the Alliance.

SUPERVISORS' REPORTS.

Then followed the reading of Supervisors' reports.

One said:

Two families have secured sittings and become regular church attendants; six children gathered in Sunday School, and several others as soon as suitable clothing can be procured. My visitors feel great interest in the work

Another said:

Every field in my district has been visited. One destitute family has been made comfortable for the winter through the agency of the Alliance.

A third writes:

A visitor reports a neighborhood greatly destitute of religious influence and a desire on the part of the people for religious service there, and adds an effort will be made to do something for them.

THE REV. A. K. FULLER'S REMARKS.

The Rev. A. K. Fuller made a short address. He said in substance that he had come to the conclusion that in order to go forward with the work of the Alliance certain things were necessary. It has been demonstrated that the work is an incalcuable help to the churches. He favored calling a meeting of all interested, to lay out a plan of work and then faithfully carry it out. It is useless to have Overseers who do not work. There is much workable territory in which to labor. The Alliance was started upon the basis of doing something. Hitherto the work has been experimental. Now is the time to begin to labor in earnest. If every one does his duty good results will follow. One person cannot do the whole work. Concerted action on the part of all is needed, and if this is done there will be no fear of the future of the Alliance. Mr. Fuller alluded to the encouraging report of the Secretary.

PROFESSOR CAPEN'S VIEWS.

Professor Capen spoke on "Unused Religious Forces in Our Churches." He said he was interested in the work of Christianizing people, and from the report he had heard read by the Secretary the Alliance had no reason to feel discouraged. A great work has already been done. No one could measure it. Later on the speaker said: "A great work in any church is for 10 men to get the rest at work. Some people are afflicted with what is known in physics as inertia. One of the religious forces is motion. A force that will create motion and stop motion. There are men in church who make a great flourish but do no work. Theirs is a false motion and they should be checked. It takes the most force in any church to get all in motion. The foremost men are the ones who get the others to work. It is a wise man who will not do 10 men's work when he can get 10 men to do the same work. There is plenty for all to do—men, women and even children. The more at work the stronger the church. A weak church is found where the Pastor has to do all the work. Churches should be thoroughly organized. No one can measure the value of individual effort. Another unused force in church work is money. First men, second money. It takes money to run the church. The power of money is proverbial. Individual effort tends to giving, but if any one man gives to the exclusion of others it hurts the church. Rather should 10 men give 10 cents each than one man give $10. This gets all interested. An endowment church is a poor institution. Every individual should be asked to contribute something. There ought to be money in the treasury of the Alliance, and that money should be used wisely for the benefit of the poor and needy of this City. If people get an idea that you are sincere in looking after their bodily wants, they will believe that you are in earnest in your endeavor to save their souls. Prosecute the work with more vigor in the future than has been done in the past. Thorough organization is another unused force. If you have a great many at work in a church it is by organization. Thorough organization should be carried into every department of church work. Search out strangers in the church and shake hands with them. There should be a "shaking committee." Strangers like to be noticed. God is working by His spirit and word, but uses you and me as instrumentalities in that work. Another unused force in religious work is the value of statistics. There is a power and an inspiration behind them. It is a great satistaction to know what has been done in church work. The Pastor should know how his congregation is "run." There is a power in it. The only way to know these things is to keep track of them. There is no office in the Sunday School more important than that of Secretary. He has a large field, and can do as much effective work as the Superintendent. Somebody should keep statistics. Let the Sunday School know how many teachers and scholars are present from Sunday to Sunday. Another important force is social life at home, on the street and in the church. The lower the person is in the scale of humanity the more he will appreciate cordiality and kindness. There is a wonderful power in a handshake—not the country pump-handle shake, but the one that will make you feel as if the shaker's soul was in the end of his fingers. In the family life there is a power in the head of a family to exercise an influence for the church on the other members, particularly the children. Parents who bring their children to Church with them are a power in any Church. Get the children in the habit of going to Church, and the habit will grow with them. If they are allowed to stay at home when young they will stay at home when they are men and women. Parents should see to it that their children occupy the same pews with them. The power of prayer does not amount to much unless we are earnest and have faith. God answers prayers. The power of music and of song should not be overlooked. The people love these things. They are a great power over the ordinary mind and heart."

THE REV. DR. VANSLYKE'S ADDRESS.

The subject of the Rev. Dr. VanSlyke's address was: "Is the Alliance a Practical Method For Utilizing These Forces?" The speaker contended that it was. He said he regretted that there is not a larger representation of Kingston people identified with the Alliance. By means of the Alliance he had learned to his great surprise and gratification that there are 30 families attending services at his church whose names he had not before known. This is one of the grand results of the labors of the Alliance. Later on the speaker spoke of certain facts to be recognized. There is a large number of people in this City who are non-church-goers. This is a startling and alarming fact. Then there is a considerable number of people who are estranged from the church because of certain prejudices. This class of people have a vague conception of the church; that it is a place for only well-to-do people, with whom they are averse to mingling. Then there is a certain poison disseminated by the press, which fills the minds of readers, who grow skeptical and come to believe that religion is played out. A spiritual inertia prevails in the hearts and minds of some people. There are the Sunday papers, or rather magazines, which monopolize the minds of many who otherwise would attend church and listen to the words of gospel truth. Mr. VanSlyke asked, "How does the Evangelical Alliance adjust itself to these facts?" In answer he said that the Alliance works on the co-operative plan in a most ingenious and happy manner and refuses to have anything to do with secularism. With all the churches combined it undertakes simply to utilize the great spirit of Christ under command of a captain and his aids. The first principle of co-operation in this work is to advance in the most efficient way the unity of Christ's religion. The Alliance endeavors to bring in close contact with the church, people who are estranged. As an illustration, Mr. VanSlyke explained the method of irrigration of land in the far West, and said the purpose of the Evangelical Alliance was to irrigate society to a Christian growth. Living force is the only thing that will overcome this inertia in men. Every visitation of the Alliance well directed and sustained, helps to overcome this inertia. The Alliance transmits religious influences to these people. It is the nerves of the church—a gigantic octapus grasping up in its tentacles the poor, needy and sinful people of a community, and inducing them to attend church. It is a far-reaching Nemesis. "Christ touched the stricken ones. Are we not to lay our hands on the suffering ones? Will not you stretch your hand to that cold life? You can do it. Christ said: 'I will draw all men unto me when I am lifted up.' But how is the church to draw men to Him? We may be the conveyances of Christ's spirit. Use influences emanating from Christ. It is your duty to do it. What is the church for? I ask you to put on your thinking cap. What is the church for? Is it an ark—an old Roman Catholic notion—to get into to be saved? I would not insult your intelligence by supposing you would answer yes. There is something more to be done than simply 'getting in the church.' A spirit of religious work should break out and invade society and put out the fires of evil and selfishness. The church is a force to do good. The Alliance is a factor to generate this force." Mr. VanSlyke, to illustrate how "mean some people in this City must feel," told of a man in Colorado who went hunting quail on a Sunday. His wife pleaded with him not to go, and as a last resort said that a collection for home missions would be taken up that day in church and he would be expected to give something. Taking a roll of bills and some change out of his pocket the man searched through them until he found 25 cents, which he gave to his wife for home missions. While hunting, a storm arose and the man sought shelter in the hollow of a cotton-wood tree. He fell asleep and was awakened by a pressure against his body. He could hardly breathe and he suffered intense pain. The cotton wood tree, which was porous, had begun to swell from the rain that had fallen upon it. The man tried to think of any good deeds that he had done, and he recalled to mind the 25 cents that he had given his wife that morning for home missions. He felt so mean and small that he crawled out of the log like an eel. The speaker concluded by urging hearty co-operation in the work of the Alliance.

THE MUSIC RENDERED.

The music was a pleasing feature of the meeting. A male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Charles Knight, Rufus Hermance, Melvin Wygant and Richard Dawe, rendered several appropriate selections. The violin obligato by Jerome Williams, and organ accompaniment by Professor John Karl, and a solo by Rufus Hermance, were well rendered. The following was the programme rendered:

Cavatina.............Raff
Messrs. Williams, violin; Professor Karl, organ.
Christ the Fountain.............Quartette
Nothing But Leaves.............Quartette
God in Mercy Hear a Prayer.............Rufus Hermance
There is a Green Hill Far Away.............Quartette

A SPECIAL MEETING.

A special meeting of the Alliance will be held at 7:30 o'clock on Monday in the City Hall.

A NOTE CASE.

The first case placed on trial, this forenoon, was No 3, James G. Powers et al. against Mary A. Diamond et al. John E. VanEtten, attorney for plaintiffs, and William Lounsbery for the defendants. The action is brought to secure the payment of a promissory note of $567.52, given on December 7, 1882, by George B. Diamond and his mother, Jane Diamond, and sister, Mary A. Diamond, of this City. The pleading of the plaintiff is that the note is a legal paper and the money consideration on its face should be paid. The defense is that the note was obtained by fraudulent statements made by plaintiffs and others who "played" upon the emotions of two of the defendants, and induced them to sign or give the note to "save their family from disgrace and shield the son and brother, who at the time the note was signed was confined in the Ulster County Jail in Kingston," under criminal charges, and also that those who signed the note received no money or other valuable consideration whatever for so doing. After several witnesses had been examined and much argument pro and con by counsel, Mr. Lounsbery asked the Court for the privilege of amending his answer by inserting therein the words, in relation to the note, "because it was given to compound the alleged felony against the form of the statute." Counsel for plaintiffs made affidavit that amending defendants' answer raised a new issue which the plaintiffs were not ready to try on account of the absence of witnesses and the case was put "over the term" on the payment of "term costs" by the defendants.

AN EJECTMENT SUIT.

A jury was taken in No. 4, John Lee et al. against Franz Schrowang. John E. VanEtten for plaintiff; William Lounsbery for defendant. This is an ejectment case and the issue involved is the title to a triangular piece of land situated along the "Plank Road" in the village of Hickory Bush, town of Rosendale. The pleadings of the plaintiffs, who are minor children of Daniel Lee, deceased, claim a two-thirds interest in the piece of land. The defense is that the property rightfully belongs to Franz Schrowang.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Putnam says he will hold two weeks' Circuit.

The attendance of lawyers at the opening of the Circuit Court was large.

The steam heating of the Court House, Kingston, is appreciated by attendants.

There are several cases on the calendar that lawyers call "long winded" cases.

The 70 or more cases on the calendar does not show much "rush" on the part of lawyers and clients.

The demand for "Court Calendars" was so lively this forenoon that County Clerk Wurts was advised to get some insurance agent to help him out. One hundred and twenty calendars were printed for this term of Court and only one or two are left.

William McGinnis, of Rondout, began the work of cutting ice on the Kingston Point flats to-day, but was compelled to desist after a short time on account of the ice near the shore giving way, thus preventing sleighs from running on and off the ice. A bridge will be built from the shore to the ice. The ice on the flat is seven and eight inches in thickness.

About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. S. Staples, of Rondout, started to go home from the residence of John McCausland, on Union-avenue, where she had made a call. She slipped on the ice and her left limb was broken. Mrs. McCausland went to her aid. The attention of a gentleman in a sleigh was called, and Mrs. Staples was carried to her home. Drs. Augustus and Frederick Huhne reduced the fracture.

A Point of Law Well Taken.

Charles Beaumont, of Wilbur, was arraigned before Recorder Hussey, this forenoon, charged with assaulting a young man named Edward Sandford. Beaumont's counsel asked the discharge of his client on the ground that the officer who arrested him had no right to take him to jail before being arraigned before a magistrate for an examination. The Recorder said the point of law was well taken, and he discharged Beaumont.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

Haverly-Cleveland Minstrels—Mrs. Shaw, Whistler—Bartley Campbell's "Fate."

The members of Cornell Hose Company, of Rondout, held a meeting, last night, at which it was decided that a promenade concert be given at the Academy of Music, on February 27, under the auspices of the organization. Select music, by an orchestra of 20 pieces, under the direction of Professor Williams, will be a leading feature of the event.

The following has been printed about Mrs. Alice J. Shaw, whistler, who will appear in Kingston Opera House on Monday night: "She has a whole aviary and a whole orchestra of reed intruments in her mouth. Her whistle is a most comprehensive intrument, capable of stress, swell, staccatos, trills and tremolos, with a range of two and a-half octaves. That is a technical description of her powers. To be colloquial: Her labial music has been compared to Niagara for volume and power. To the soughing of the west wind through the tree-tops for softness. To the soaring bombshell for rapidity. To the 'untutored saw-buzzer' when rendering Wagner. To the saucy bobolink for pertness."

Concerning Miss Lamar, who will appear in Bartley Campbell's "Fate," at Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, on Friday night, the New-York Evening Sun has said this: "Though somewhat above the average height, her movement is always naturally lithe and graceful. In many of the brighter passages of the piece her delicate, refined countenance is often animated with a very winsome and playful expression, and seldom, if at all, grows oppressively languid or dull. While there may be room for improvement in Miss Lamar's present endeavors, she certainly exhibits unusual promise and capability. Her conception is generally accurate and thoroughly intelligent. The supporting people are uniformly good."

NOTES ABOUT CURRENT LITERATURE.

A Newburgh Man's Book of Poems—The Railway Mail Service—"Vagabond Tales."

Wide Awake has this year taken a new hold on popularity—if such a thing could be possible.

Branard Emery, of Newburgh, has published a volume of poems. The edition is limited to 114 copies.

The City of Treves, Germany, founded 2,004 years before Christ, and later, for a century, capital of the Roman Empire, will be described in the March Scribner by Professor W. B. Scott, of Princeton, who has recently made a careful study of its antiquities.

Professor Boyesen's "Vagabond Tales," in press by D. Lothrop Company, of Boston, Mass., is an engaging collection of this popular story-teller's recent "novellettes." No writer living—scarcely excepting even the great Bjornstein—so thoroughly understands the Norse character and when into this is infused the American element, the success of Professor Boyesen's tales is easily understood. Some of the stories taken into this collection have already been translated into French, German and Spanish.

Thomas L. James, Postmaster-General in Garfield's Cabinet, will contribute his first magazine article to the March Scribner—entitled "The Railway Mail Service." He will concisely and entertainingly describe the evolution of mail-carrying in this country, from the days of the colonial carrier, with the letters in his saddle-bags, to the modern fast mail train. A graphic account will then be given of the actual work done on the most important mail trains in the country, describing the skill and dexterity of a corps of trained mail clerks.

The Erie Railroad Company is experiencing dull times. Few coal and freight shipments are being made and the passenger business is light.

Eighteen districts, comprising 170 fields, have been entirely canvassed and reported, and 12 districts, comprising 115 fields, partially canvassed. There are still about 1,000 families not visited and have not yet been reached through the Alliance.

SUPERVISORS' REPORTS.

Then followed the reading of Supervisors' reports.

One said:

Two families have secured sittings and become regular church attendants; six children gathered in Sunday School, and several others as soon as suitable clothing can be procured. My visitors feel great interest in the work

Another said:

Every field in my district has been visited. One destitute family has been made comfortable for the winter through the agency of the Alliance.

A third writes:

A visitor reports a neighborhood greatly destitute of religious influence and a desire on the part of the people for religious service there, and adds an effort will be made to do something for them.

THE REV. A. K. FULLER'S REMARKS.

The Rev. A. K. Fuller made a short address. He said in substance that he had come to the conclusion that in order to go forward with the work of the Alliance certain things were necessary. It has been demonstrated that the work is an incalcuable help to the churches. He favored calling a meeting of all interested, to lay out a plan of work and then faithfully carry it out. It is useless to have Overseers who do not work. There is much workable territory in which to labor. The Alliance was started upon the basis of doing something. Hitherto the work has been experimental. Now is the time to begin to labor in earnest. If every one does his duty good results will follow. One person cannot do the whole work. Concerted action on the part of all is needed, and if this is done there will be no fear of the future of the Alliance. Mr. Fuller alluded to the encouraging report of the Secretary.

PROFESSOR CAPEN'S VIEWS.

Professor Capen spoke on "Unused Religious Forces in Our Churches." He said he was interested in the work of Christianizing people, and from the report he had heard read by the Secretary the Alliance had no reason to feel discouraged. A great work has already been done. No one could measure it. Later on the speaker said: "A great work in any church is for 10 men to get the rest at work. Some people are afflicted with what is known in physics as inertia. One of the religious forces is motion. A force that will create motion and stop motion. There are men in church who make a great flourish but do no work. Theirs is a false motion and they should be checked. It takes the most force in any church to get all in motion. The foremost men are the ones who get the others to work. It is a wise man who will not do 10 men's work when he can get 10 men to do the same work. There is plenty for all to do—men, women and even children. The more at work the stronger the church. A weak church is found where the Pastor has to do all the work. Churches should be thoroughly organized. No one can measure the value of individual effort. Another unused force in church work is money. First men, second money. It takes money to run the church. The power of money is proverbial. Individual effort tends to giving, but if any one man gives to the exclusion of others it hurts the church. Rather should 10 men give 10 cents each than one man give $10. This gets all interested. An endowment church is a poor institution. Every individual should be asked to contribute something. There ought to be money in the treasury of the Alliance, and that money should be used wisely for the benefit of the poor and needy of this City. If people get an idea that you are sincere in looking after their bodily wants, they will believe that you are in earnest in your endeavor to save their souls. Prosecute the work with more vigor in the future than has been done in the past. Thorough organization is another unused force. If you have a great many at work in a church it is by organization. Thorough organization should be carried into every department of church work. Search out strangers in the church and shake hands with them. There should be a "shaking committee." Strangers like to be noticed. God is working by His spirit and word, but uses you and me as instrumentalities in that work. Another unused force in religious work is the value of statistics. There is a power and an inspiration behind them. It is a great satisfaction to know what has been done in church work. The Pastor should know how his congregation is "run." There is a power in it. The only way to know these things is to keep track of them. There is no office in the Sunday School more important than that of Secretary. He has a large field, and can do as much effective work as the Superintendent. Somebody should keep statistics. Let the Sunday School know how many teachers and scholars are present from Sunday to Sunday. Another important force is social life at home, on the street and in the church. The lower the person is in the scale of humanity the more he will appreciate cordiality and kindness. There is a wonderful power in a handshake—not the country pump-handle shake, but the one that will make you feel as if the shaker's soul was in the end of his fingers. In the family life there is a power in the head of a family to exercise an influence for the church on the other members, particularly the children. Parents who bring their children to Church with them are a power in any Church. Get the children in the habit of going to Church, and the habit will grow with them. If they are allowed to stay at home when young they will stay at home when they are men and women. Parents should see to it that their children occupy the same pews with them. The power of prayer does not amount to much unless we are earnest and have faith. God answers prayers. The power of music and of song should not be overlooked. The people love these things. They are a great power over the ordinary mind and heart."

THE REV. DR. VANSLYKE'S ADDRESS.

The subject of the Rev. Dr. VanSlyke's address was: "Is the Alliance a Practical Method For Utilizing These Forces?" The speaker contended that it was. He said he regretted that there is not a larger representation of Kingston people identified with the Alliance. By means of the Alliance he had learned to his great surprise and gratification that there are 30 families attending services at his church whose names he had not before known. This is one of the grand results of the labors of the Alliance. Later on the speaker spoke of certain facts to be recognized. "There is a large number of people in this City who are non-church-goers. This is a startling and alarming fact. Then there is a considerable number of people who are estranged from the church because of certain prejudices. This class of people have a vague conception of the church; that it is a place for only well-to-do people, with whom they are averse to mingling. Then there is a certain poison disseminated by the press, which fills the minds of readers, who grow skeptical and come to believe that religion is played out. A spiritual inertia prevails in the hearts and minds of some people. There are the Sunday papers, or rather magazines, which monopolize the minds of many who otherwise would attend church and listen to the words of gospel truth. Mr. VanSlyke asked, "How does the Evangelical Alliance adjust itself to these facts?" In answer he said that the Alliance works on the co-operative plan in a most ingenious and happy manner and refuses to have anything to do with secularism. With all the churches combined it undertakes simply to utilize the great spirit of Christ under command of a captain and his aids. The first principle of co-operation in this work is to advance in the most efficient way the unity of Christ's religion. The Alliance endeavors to bring in close contact with the church, people who are estranged. As an illustration, Mr. VanSlyke explained the method of irrigration of land in the far West, and said the purpose of the Evangelical Alliance was to irrigate society to a Christian growth. Living force is the only thing that will overcome this inertia in men. Every visitation of the Alliance well directed and sustained, helps to overcome this inertia. The Alliance transmits religious influences to these people. It is the nerves of the church—a gigantic octapus grasping up in its tentacles the poor, needy and sinful people of a community, and inducing them to attend church. It is a far-reaching Nemesis. "Christ touched the stricken ones. Are we not to lay our hands on the suffering ones? Will not you stretch your hand to that cold life? You can do it. Christ said: 'I will draw all men unto me when I am lifted up.' But how is the church to draw men to Him? We may be the conveyances of Christ's spirit. Use influences emanating from Christ. It is your duty to do it. What is the church for? I ask you to put on your thinking cap. What is the church for? Is it an ark—an old Roman Catholic notion—to get into to be saved? I would not insult your intelligence by supposing you would answer yes. There is something more to be done than simply 'getting in the church.' A spirit of religious work should break out and invade society and put out the fires of evil and selfishness. The church is a force to do good. The Alliance is a factor to generate this force." Mr. VanSlyke, to illustrate how "mean some people in this City must feel," told of a man in Colorado who went hunting quail on a Sunday. His wife pleaded with him not to go, and as a last resort said that a collection for home missions would be taken up that day in church and he would be expected to give something. Taking a roll of bills and some change out of his pocket the man searched through them until he found 25 cents, which he gave to his wife for home missions. While hunting, a storm arose and the man sought shelter in the hollow of a cotton-wood tree. He fell asleep and was awakened by a pressure against his body. He could hardly breathe and he suffered intense pain. The cotton wood tree, which was porous, had begun to swell from the rain that had fallen upon it. The man tried to think of any good deeds that he had done, and he recalled to mind the 25 cents that he had given his wife that morning for home missions. He felt so mean and small that he crawled out of the log like an eel. The speaker concluded by urging hearty co-operation in the work of the Alliance.

THE MUSIC RENDERED.

The music was a pleasing feature of the meeting. A male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Charles Knight, Rufus Hermance, Melvin Wygant and Richard Dawe, rendered several appropriate selections. The violin obligato by Jerome Williams, and organ accompaniment by Professor John Karl, and a solo by Rufus Hermance, were well rendered. The following was the programme rendered:

Cavatina........Raff
Messrs. Williams, violin; Professor Karl, organ.
Christ the Fountain........Quartette
Nothing But Leaves........Quartette
God in Mercy Hear a Prayer........Rufus Hermance
There is a Green Hill Far Away........Quartette

A NOTE CASE.

The first case placed on trial, this forenoon, was No 3, James G. Powers et al. against Mary A. Diamond et al. John E. VanEtten, attorney for plaintiffs, and William Lounsbery for the defendants. The action is brought to secure the payment of a promissory note of $567.52, given on December 7, 1882, by George B. Diamond and his mother, Jane Diamond, and sister, Mary A. Diamond, of this City. The pleading of the plaintiff is that the note is a legal paper and the money consideration on its face should be paid. The defense is that the note was obtained by fraudulent statements made by plaintiffs and others who "played" upon the emotions of two of the defendants, and induced them to sign or give the note to "save their family from disgrace and shield the son and brother, who at the time the note was signed was confined in the Ulster County Jail in Kingston," under criminal charges, and also that those who signed the note received no money or other valuable consideration whatever for so doing. After several witnesses had been examined and much argument pro and con by counsel, Mr. Lounsbery asked the Court for the privilege of amending his answer by inserting therein the words, in relation to the note, "because it was given to compound the alleged felony against the form of the statute." Counsel for plaintiffs made affidavit that amending defendants' answer raised a new issue which the plaintiffs were not ready to try on account of the absence of witnesses and the case was put "over the term" on the payment of "term costs" by the defendants.

AN EJECTMENT SUIT.

A jury was taken in No. 4, John Lee et al. against Franz Schrowang. John E. VanEtten for plaintiff; William Lounsbery for defendant. This is an ejectment case and the issue involved is the title to a triangular piece of land situated along the "Plank Road" in the village of Hickory Bush, town of Rosendale. The pleadings of the plaintiffs, who are minor children of Daniel Lee, deceased, claim a two-thirds interest in the piece of land. The defense is that the property rightfully belongs to Franz Schrowang.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Putnam says he will hold two weeks' Circuit.

The attendance of lawyers at the opening of the Circuit Court was large.

The steam heating of the Court House, Kingston, is appreciated by attendants.

There are several cases on the calendar that lawyers call "long winded" cases.

The 70 or more cases on the calendar does not show much "rush" on the part of lawyers and clients.

The demand for "Court Calendars" was so lively this forenoon that County Clerk Wurts was advised to get some insurance agent to help him out. One hundred and twenty calendars were printed for this term of Court and only one or two are left.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

CONGRESSMAN MCKINLEY ventures the opinion that ex-Governor Foster of Ohio will be Harrison's Secretary of the Treasury.

THOMAS C. PLATT told a friend in Washington yesterday that he thought New York would be passed over in the makeup of the Cabinet.

NEARLY a hundred tramps were chained together in the Warren county, N. J., jail yesterday, and set to breaking stone in the public gravel pit. They are to work several hours each day.

COL. LAMONT is to become President of the Avenue C Street Railroad Company of New-York after the 4th of March. This is spoiling a good newspaper man to make a doubtful or indifferent railway manager.

COL. WRIGHT, who has charge of the "personal comfort" of the inauguration visitors, has secured quarters for 17,757, and has applications for 25,000 more. As yet the rush of individual applicants has not yet begun.

GEN. GREELY wants the signal service improved. He reports that two-thirds of the Lieutenants are either mentally or physically incompetent for duty. The mental incompetency has been clearly shown for a long time in the weather reports.

A FEW days ago Rev. Robert Johnson was engaged in collecting subscriptions in New York for a church in Essex county, but it was proved that he appropriated the money to his own use. Yesterday Judge Cowing sentenced him to state prison for two years.

LIZZIE MARGOLIN sued Abraham Gillin in New York for breach of promise, claiming $10,000 damages. Abraham was locked up in jail till yesterday when the case was settled without cost to the defendant. Lizzie had discovered that it was not Abraham but his twin brother who had failed to keep his promise.

THE news has been received at Gainesville, Ga., that Gen. Longstreet is to become Register of the Treasury in place of Gen. Rosecrans. The duties of this officer consist in writing his signature upon Treasury notes, drafts, bonds, etc. The Register is also the book-keeper of the Treasury, and has supervision of the work of 300 or 400 trained clerks.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER of New York, it is announced, will build a Baptist University in Chicago. His gift will amount to several hundred thousand dollars, and perhaps a million. The old Chicago University went into liquidation in 1886, and the buildings of that institution will suffice, with some improvements, for an early beginning of the work of the new University.

THE trial of McQuade, the second of the New York boodlers on District Attorney Fellows's list, has been ordered to Saratoga county, and will take place at Ballston Spa. Both Cleary and McQuade will find themselves in districts which have only Republican Judges. They are therefore sure of getting just as much justice as can be ground out of Fellows's preparation of their cases.

MINISTER PHELPS brought home 104 trunks and several hand bags. The appalling accusation brought by Democrats in the last campaign that Mr. Blaine brought home 82 trunks has a ridiculously small sound since the minister's return. The custom house officials gave an entire day to the inspection of Mr. Phelps's effects, which were found to consist mainly of goods on the free list.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TABOR decides that Building Superintendent Andrews is not entitled to $3,500 extra pay awarded him for superintending the work of putting up the papier mache ceiling of the Assembly chamber. But Mr. Andrews has already drawn $7,000 without a warrant and expects to keep it. And why should he not? The man who can stow away 700,000 feet of lumber, $30,000 worth of brick and 1,685 barrels of cement in the Assembly attic and prop them up with panels of papier mache is a genius in his line.

GEN. GROSVENOR introduced a resolution in the House yesterday, for the appointment of five members of the committee on elections who have been chosen to the next House, to take testimony without delay in relation to the election of Representative in the second district of Arkansas, where John M. Clayton was killed while preparing to contest the election of Breckinridge. Unless this is done, Gen. Grosvenor said, Breckinridge would vote upon the organization of the next House. The resolution was referred to the elections committee.

TITA CLEMENT and Victor Boff, Polish Jews, were married by a Justice of the Peace in Newark about two months ago. They were afterwards convinced that the marriage was not legal, and called in a Rabbi to repeat the religious ceremony. As they were about to be pronounced man and wife, they were arrested by a constable on warrants for bigamy, sworn out by friends who had not been invited to the wedding. The pair were marched to jail, while their bad friends stole the wedding feast. On examination before a Justice both admitted that they had been married before, but claimed that they had been divorced by a Rabbi whose fee was $5. It was found that the Rabbi had been doing a large and flourishing trade in his ready made divorces.

THE West Virginia Republicans are waking up to a scheme of Gov. Wilson, Secretary of State Walker and President of the Senate Carr to prolong the Legislative dead lock for their own benefit. Without Carr's vote there can be no election of a United States Senator or a legal declaration of the vote on Governor. The scheme is to continue the dead lock till the 23d inst., when the term of the Legislature will expire. Wilson will accordingly hold over as Governor till after the 4th of March, when he will resign and Carr will become Governor. Carr will then appoint Wilson to the Senatorial vacancy, and reappoint Walker Secretary of State. If Carr refuses to convene the Legislature in extra session, all these offices will be secure to the conspirators till January, 1890. And the Democrats of West Virginia call this "good politics."

THE ASSEMBLY CEILING.

Various Assemblymen Made Brief Speeches Thereon.

A TALK IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Assemblyman Martin Relates His Experience in Gotham.

WHO WAS THE BRIBER?

His Name Not Divulged, Though 'Twas Asked For.

THE WORLD IN MINIATURE.

THE ASSEMBLY CEILING MATTER.

A Number of Assemblymen "Free Their Minds"—Mr. Martin's Trip.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, Feb. 12.—The Assembly Chamber, this forenoon, was the scene of much excitement, arising from Sheehan calling up question of the alleged attempt of a lobbyist to bribe a member of the Assembly Appropriations Committee to assist in handing in a white-washing report on the Assembly ceiling investigation, which the Committee has in charge.

A HEATED DISCUSSION.

A heated discussion followed, which was participated in by 15 or 20 members. John Martin, of New-York, stated that he was the member who was approached in New-York by a man who informed him it would be to his financial advantage to help formulate such a report.

WHAT SHEEHAN SAID.

Sheehan opened the matter by rising to a question of privilege. Publications in New-York and other papers, this morning, he said, reflected upon him as a member of the Committee of last year which supervised the construction of the Assembly ceiling. In substance the charge is that "a member of this House, who is also a member of the Committee on Appropriations, which Committee in now investigating the ceiling subject, was offered by a lobbyist in New-York, a few days ago, $5,000 if he would vote with five other members of that Committee to white-wash the Assembly ceiling Committee." This, he said, was where his question of privilege came in. If any attempt had been or was being made, by corrupt means, or otherwise, to bring about a white-washing report, that was something he had considerable personal interest in. Of course, it was a rather delicate question. He was unable to say just what was the proper course to pursue. He had hoped some steps would be taken by some member of the House not on the Ceiling Committee to probe this matter to the bottom. It seemed to him something should be done, because no matter how much confidence the people of the State may have in the Appropriation Committee, if their report proved to be a complete vindication of the whole subject matter and declared that the work had been honestly performed the people will not have that confidence in the report that they would have had if these charges had never been made. Therefore, as a member of the Ceiling Committee, zealous for his own reputation, he believed something should be done to investigate the Appropriations Committee. It had been suggested that the House pass a vote of confidence in the Committee, and then the Committee would be at liberty to ask to be relieved from further consideration of the matter. After that the whole question could be referred to a special committee or one of the standing committees of the House.

MORE DECLARATIONS.

Gallup, also a member of the Ceiling Committee, declared it was the duty of the member of the House to whom the bribe had been offered to rise in his seat and give the name of the briber. If the Appropriations Committee were discharged now the same person was at liberty to pursue his nefarious schemes with reference to the other committees.

ENSE EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE.

Ense, another member of the Ceiling Committee, expressed the fullest confidence in the integrity of the Appropriations Committee. He had not seen any reason yet to believe they would not make the fullest possible investigation.

A COMMITTEE MAY INVESTIGATE.

Dunlap moved that a Special Committee of five be appointed to investigate the reports and rumors in the newspapers to-day to which Mase offered an amendment that the whole matter be referred to the Appropriations Committee.

WHAT HUSTED SAID.

Husted did not believe in investigating the Appropriation Committee. Such a course at this time would be unwise, unjust and unfair.

SHEEHAN ASKS A QUESTION.

Sheehan inquired of Husted whether the report of the Appropriations Committee would be received with confidence, if it exonorated every body connected with the ceiling.

HUSTED'S REPLY.

Husted replied that he was not a believer in total human depravity. He believed the great majority of men were honest. If a member of this House had been offered a bribe it was his duty to name the bribe. He moved a postponement of the whole matter until noon to-morrow. Dunlap thought the House should first determine whether there was any truth in all this talk about bribery.

SAXTON MAKES A SUGGESTION.

Saxton suggested that there was no charge to be investigated until the member of the House, whoever he might be, should rise in his place and make a specific charge that an attempt had been made to bribe him. Unless this was done there would be no end of investigations. He believed the Appropriations Committee would go to the bottom of the whole matter. Several members endeavored to get the Speaker's recognition, among them Martin, of New-York, to whom the bribery stories evidently pointed, though his name had not been mentioned, and when the Speaker recognized him all eyes were turned upon him.

MARTIN DEFINES HIS POSITION.

Martin said that although his name had not been mentioned he was probably generally regarded as the central figure in this matter. He was free to say he had intended to take no notice of the rumors so far as they affected himself at this particular time but this discussion forced him into it. It was his intention to have taken cognizance of the rumors when witnesses were examined. There was some truth and a great deal that was not true in them. He was free to say that some days ago he received a note from a certain gentleman to call at a certain place in New-York City. He [Martin] called at the place mentioned. The name of the signer of the note was not known to him. A conversation occurred in reference to the ceiling matter, and the gentleman said it would be to his [Martin's] advantage to consult further with him in reference to the investigation in progress. That was about the sum and substance of the matter.

BOMBARDED WITH QUESTIONS.

At this juncture, the members of the House began to bombard Martin with questions. Aspinwall asked whether it was a member of the Assembly who approached him.

MARTIN SAYS "NO, SIR."

"No, sir," emphatically replied Martin.

ASKED TO NAME THE BRIBER.

Aspinwall then asked Martin to name the briber.

MR. MARTIN ANNOYED.

Martin, with considerable show of annoyance, replied that he did not propose to be cross-examined severally by the members of the House. If the gentlemen had not been so anxious and had let him alone to follow his own course there would have been more information obtained; then he would have ascertained the whole facts. It was now simply a question of veracity between himself and some one else unknown to the House. There was no necessity of a Committee investigating. He declared that the newspapers' statement that a certain number of members of the Appropriation Committee were in a position to vote so that there would be a tie—five to five—and that he was to be the sixth was not true. He had found a most earnest desire on the part of the whole Committee to make the investigation full, thorough and honest. No member had thrown the slighest obstacle in the way. The Committee did not need any urging or egging on. He proposed in the Appropriations Committee, to bring out all the facts. An intimation was made to him by the person referred to that the action as indicated by him would prove to his [Martin's] financial advantage.

AINSWORTH ASKS A QUESTION.

Ainsworth inquired what was the course of action this gentleman desired to be taken.

MR MARTIN "SUPPOSES."

Martin—"Well, I suppose I have got to give the whole story now."

MR. MARTIN FREES HIS MIND.

Martin then went on to say that it was stated by the gentleman that there was apparently an intention on the part of some members of the House to make this a case of persecution, not prosecution; in other words they were going for Cole's scalp, meaning the Speaker. It was stated to him that there were other members of the Ceiling Committee involved, and that he, as a member of the Appropriation Committee, could take the position of exonorating them.

MR. GALLUP ASKS A QUESTION.

Gallup asked how the members of the press learned the facts if Martin desired to keep them secret.

MR. MARTIN CRITICSES THE PRESS.

Martin replied that the press was fearfully and wonderfully made.

JUDGE GREENE DESIRES INFORMATION.

Judge Greene asked whether there was any statement made to Martin by the alleged briber to the effect that five members of the Appropriation Committee were ready to sign a white-washing report, and that he [Martin] was wanted as the sixth. Martin said no such statement was made.

"WHAT WAS IT WORTH?"

Dunlap—"Was the statement made that it would be worth $5,000?"

"NOT AS TO THE AMOUNT."

Martin—"Not as to the amount."

THE VALUE, AGAIN.

Dunlap—"How much was it to be worth?"

MARTIN OBJECTS.

Martin—"I am not here to be criticised."

ASPINALL EXPRESSES AN OPINION.

Aspinall characterized Martin's statement as a most surprising one. It was his duty to give the House the name of the briber. He [Aspinall] would not have waited as Martin had until compelled to rise in his place. He would have made the statement in the face of the attempted briber. He denied that he had any soreness against the Speaker of the House because he did not get the places he desired on Committees. He was interested in this matter because he believed the State had been robbed of $177,000 and he proposed to state his views honestly if he was the only man out of 128 who did.

WHAT SPEAKER COLE SAID.

The Speaker here said there had apparently been an effort on the part of some one to retard this investigation on the theory that some parties in the House, owing to personal animosity were endeavoring to persecute the Speaker. He hoped the investigation would not stop in any way on his account. He desired it to be thorough and searching.

FAIR TREATMENT DESIRED.

Ainsworth, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, said he simply desired fair treatment from the newspapers. After the Committee reported, if the report was not satisfactory, they could bury him. It had been stated that he and other members of the Committee had been bought and were ready to sign a white-washing report.

ABOUT REPORTERS, ETC.

Various members made remarks about newspapers, reporters, etc., and hard things were said.

REFERRED TO APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE.

The whole matter was then referred to the Appropriation Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In the House to-day the Senate bill to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States in Panama was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Townsend introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for a special display of the farm products of the United States at the Paris Exposition.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

The House resumed consideration of the Smalls Elliott contested election case. Mr. O'Ferral, of Virginia, a member of the Committee on Elections, defended the majority report. He answered the criticism made by Mr. Rowell, of Illinois, upon the election laws of South Carolina by the declaration that in many respects they were the laws framed under a Republican administration. It was a fair law, and similar to the law of almost every State in the Union.

WHAT MR. LEWIS SAID.

A study of the testimony, he said, would prove that there was no weight to be given to the charge of fraud by the Canvassing Board. Intimidation had been rife on the part of Smalls and his supporters, and the free exercise of the elective franchise had been trampled under foot by the man to whom the minority wished to give a seat on this floor.

IN THE U. S. SENATE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—In executive session of the Senate, this afternoon, Senator Plumb, from the Committee on Agriculture, favorably reported the nomination of Norman J. Colman, of Missouri, to be Secretary of Agriculture. Objection was made by a Republican Senator to consideration at this time, and a Democratic Senator then objected to admission of the nomination, and under the rule it went over until the next executive session. It is understood the nomination will be confirmed when it again comes before the Senate.

EDGERTON'S PROSPECTIVE SUCCESSOR.

The nomination of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Thompson to be Civil Service Commissioner in place of Edgerton, removed, and of First Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson, to be Judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, will be subject to the general rule adopted by the majority of the Senate respecting political nominations.

IN REFERENCE TO PRESSES.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Messrs. Hiscock and Harris, the Sub-Committee of the Senate Finance Committee, who have had under consideration for several months the question of supplanting the steam press plate printing machines in the bureau of engraving and printing by the re-introducing of hand machines, to-day reported to the full Committee adversely to the advocates of the proposed change. The report is made upon a House bill, which requires that the printing of stamps, notes and bonds shall be done in the highest style of art. The Sub-Committee say steam press work fulfils that requirement.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Indications for Wednesday: Much colder, clearing weather, westerly winds.

CBEVELAND'S LAW PARTNERS.

Mr. Cleveland has united his fortunes with those of a congenial law firm. The Democratic Brooklyn Eagle recently called to memory the fact that Francis L. Stetson, one of the partners, "got him as Governor to sign Jacob Sharp's Surface Railroad bill in 1884, a bill which Sharp paid $1,000,000 to get through the Legislature, on which he spent $500,000 more to induce the Aldermen to give to him the monopoly of Broadway, and for a ten minutes' brief on behalf of which he paid the same Mr. Stetson $10,000 in hand." If Mr. Cleveland wishes to find "big money" in the law business, he can feel assured of association with men who are not troubled with tender consciences when a big fee is to be made.

But the above is not all. The same firm are now engaged in defending a free trade trick as dishonest as the practice of undervaluations at the custom houses which has cast dishonor upon the outgoing administration. There is a duty on woolen goods and a lower duty on mixed goods. Some foreign concerns have been making beautiful woolen goods, working in a mere trifle of cotton. They sell the goods as all wool, but would put them through the custom house as "mixed," saving 5 cents a yard and 5 per cent ad valorem. There is a law which still puts on the higher duty, when "threads of other materials are introduced for the purpose of changing the classification." But these manufacturers do not insert cotton threads. They mix cotton with the wool of each thread, and then claim that such thread is not "of other materials." This petty trick has not yet been recognized by the Treasury Department, but Mr. Cleveland's firm is doing all it can to aid the importers. Mr. Cleveland's influence will not be as powerful for free trade in a law office as in the Presidency; there is little doubt that if he had been reelected he would have forced this construction of the law upon the trade of the country in a short time. The Treasury Department will soon change hands, and it is not believed that the firm will win their case. But what a congenial companion they will find in the author of two free-trade messages.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Mr. Cleveland did a very neat stroke of business yesterday. He not only approved the bill creating the new Cabinet office of Secretary of Agriculture, but sent to the Senate the nomination of Norman J. Colman of Missouri, present Commissioner of Agriculture, to be the first Secretary. This does not seem to have been anticipated, for the idea of being the first man to hold the office has given the place an extra attraction to Republican aspirants. There can be no serious objection, however, to the confirmation, as he will go out three weeks hence with the other gentlemen of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. It is asserted that Gen. Harrison has often spoken of Hon. Warner Miller as the right man for Secretary of Agriculture. The creation of this Department will, it is believed, give Gen. Harrison the opportunity to award two Cabinet places to New York. The impression still prevails that a Western man will receive the Treasury portfolio. New York in addition to the Agricultural Department, may get either the Navy, the Postoffice or the Attorney Generalship. The names most frequently mentioned for one of these places are those of Thomas C. Platt and William M. Evarts. Mr. Evarts was Attorney General under President Johnson, and has admirable qualities for that office. Mr. Platt's splendid business qualities fit him equally well for the arduous and responsible duties of Postmaster General.

The new Department of Agriculture has not been enlarged beyond the sphere of the Agricultural Bureau, but a Republican Congress will undoubtedly charge it with increased duties and responsibilities. The Signal Service Bureau, the General Land Office and the Bureau of Statistics of Labor could with entire propriety be transferred to this department, which would then become one of the most important under the government.

FIENDISH TORTURE.

The Olean Times tells a story of cruelty that outdoes the worst tales of White Capism. It occurred in the town of Napoli, Cattaraugus county, in the sugar-making season of 1888. A gang of farmers' sons, spending their nights among the sugar camps, had raided on the chickens of their neighbors until patience gave way, and a farm hand in the employ of one of them made a confession implicating the whole gang. The thieves professed penitence and paid for the chickens they had stolen, but planned a horrid vengeance on the man who had "squealed." Finding him alone in charge of his employer's camp one night, they framed a cross out of a tree and actually nailed him to it. They drove nails through the tips of his shoes and his clothing, and fastened his hands and arms by driving long nails on each side. In this way they pinioned him as firmly as if the nails had been driven through his flesh. They then erected the cross within three feet of fire, which they supplied with fresh fuel, poured a draught of bad whisky down his throat, and left him to the tortures of the flames and smoke, which blew directly into his face. After hours of agony he sank into unconsciousness, in which condition he was found the next day. He had hung upon the cross from eleven o'clock in the evening till ten in the morning. He was carried to the house of his employer, where he lay for weeks in a critical condition. He refused, however, to prosecute his tormentors, fearing that they might inflict still more cruel punishment. And this crime happened in a civilized community, in a county noted for its peacefulness and the good order and morality of its people. But it is in such communities that the White Caps had their origin.

NO INCREASE OF SALARIES.

The Republican Senators at Albany held a caucus last night, but came to no conclusion on the excise question though there was a long debate. Senator Hendricks favored the Excise Commission's bill, while Senator Vedder advocated his liquor tax bill. Other Senators favored a high license bill like the one presented in the Assembly by General Curtis. Another caucus, composed of Republicans of both Houses, is to be held, at which all proposed measures on the subject will receive consideration, and it is not unlikely that a committee will be appointed to frame a satisfactory bill.

The caucus developed so much opposition to the various schemes for increasing official salaries that Senator Vedder promised to withdraw his bill for the enlargement of the salaries of the Supreme Court Judges. It had been ascertained that scores of the ablest lawyers in the state were willing to take the places of the Judges at the present rate of pay. It is believed, however, that no Judge will resign, but that all of them will try to "worry along" on the $7,200 now paid them. Three or four will go out of office next fall, and an opportunity to test their willingness to be re-elected, or that of others to step into their shoes, will then be afforded. Very few of the men who contribute to the salaries of these public servants are in the enjoyment of equal incomes, and the Legislator who is asked to increase their pay has a healthy horror of what the opinion of his constituents would be concerning the act.

THE CLAYTON MURDER.

The Climax of a Continuous Political Crime—A Brief but Truthful History.

[From the Hartford Courant.]

To discuss and dismiss the murder of John M. Clayton as an isolated crime—one of those sudden, improbable, unpredictable outbreaks of savagery which occasionally occur in the most law-abiding communities—would be to utterly mistake its character and miss its lesson.

Rightly looked at, this cowardly assassination is seen to be part of a continuous criminal transaction, an episode in a long history of lawlessness and violence, the climax of a series of aggressions upon the rights of the citizens and the sanctity of the suffrage. The conditions that made it possible and probable, the events that led directly up to it, are alike matters of common notoriety.

To go no further back than last September, we have the spectacle of a Democratic political club converting itself into a military company, furnished with arms by the Governor of Arkansas, and parading around town to intimidate the negroes. Mr. Benjamin, a leading lawyer of Little Rock, goes to Morrilton to see fair-play in the election; as he steps from the train he is attacked by a mob and receives injuries from which he died not long after. On election day the Republican judges of election go to the polling place only to find themselves excluded. When they attempt to open polls elsewhere, Democratic deputy sheriffs compel them to desist. The voting over, one of the Democratic election judges takes the ballot box and carries it around town with him until 9 o'clock in the evening, followed at every step by the faithful federal Supervisor of Elections, whom he finds it impossible to shake off. Finally he returns the box to its place and goes away. The Supervisor and one of the Democratic Judges remain in the room. Half an hour afterward four masked men rush in with leveled revolvers, compel the Supervisor and his companion to face the wall, and then carry off the box and the poll books. Not long after some one fires a shot through the window at the Supervisor, as he sits at the card table in the back office of one of the local physicians, wounding him but, happily, not killing him. He takes the hint and the next train for Little Rock. Colonel Clayton, the Republican candidate for Congress, decides to contest the seat. It is clear to him that any agent of his, going to Plummerville to take testimony in his behalf, will run serious personal risks. Like the brave man he is, he goes there himself. The lurking assassin again creeps up to the window, takes surer aim this time, and the contest, so far as Colonel Clayton is concerned, is over. Mr. Breckinridge, his certified Democratic competitor, is deeply shocked and grieved, the newspapers of the state express appropriate sentiments of horror and indignation, eloquent speeches are made in the Legislature at Little Rock, and a reward is offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Arkansas will discharge but half of her duty to herself if she stops with the arrest and conviction of the murderer. The more important thing for Arkansas is to get rid of the evil conditions which produce such murders as naturally and certainly as the tree produces its fruit.

THE EVENING PAPER.

It Publishes the News of the Same Day—Gaining on the Morning Paper.

[From the Syracuse Journal.]

Mr. W. E. Gardner, associate editor of the Evening Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wis., a bright, enterprising and wide-awake journalist, read a paper before the Press Association of that state, which is now published, contrasting the evening paper with the morning paper, and arguing the advantages of the former in a most thorough and convincing manner. He discusses the kind of newspaper that sells, the circulation and influence of newspapers, the telegraphic and other news facilities, special advantages of each class, the morning and the evening paper, and he arrives at conclusions largely favorable to the evening paper. The great fact brought out is, that the evening paper gives the news of to-day, the morning paper the news of yesterday. The evening paper has rapidly increased in numbers, in circulation and in influence. Stated by percentages, the record stands: In the United States, in 1870 there were 52 per cent morning, to 48 per cent evening; in 1880, only 45 per cent morning and 55 per cent evening; in 1888, a trifle more than 39 per cent morning, and almost 61 per cent evening. In the state of New York, outside of the city of New York, the evening papers are not only more numerous, but in almost every city they far exceed in circulation the morning papers. The evening papers are as a rule the better family papers, and as the mass of the people have more time to read in the later than in the earlier hours of the day, naturally they prefer the paper that brings them the latest news, the best reading, and at the time most convenient. We know of but one considerable city in the state, aside from New York city, where morning papers have an equal circulation with the evening papers; in most of them it is at least two to one in favor of the evening issues.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

Good, square, honest goods. Hop Plasters never fail when applied to soreness or weakness.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

A WOMAN'S DISCOVERY.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this County. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Van Deusen Bros. and F. J. R. Clarke's drug stores.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon, Ind. says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

And sleeping when she died."

But the bitterest sting of such a sorrow is to think she might have been saved! They saw the rose fade on her cheek and the eyes grow dim. FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

Best Cough Cure.

For all the diseases of the Throat and Lungs, no remedy is so safe, speedy and certain as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. An indispensable family medicine.

A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this medicine."—Robert Horton, Forman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend the Favorite Remedy. It was and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

RIKER'S EXPECTORANT

Acknowledged by ali who have used it to be the most wonderful cure in the world for Coughs and Colds.

Is warranted to cure any ordinary cough or cold or your money is returned. A pleasant, swift and sure cure for Coughs and Colds.

If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat, occasioned by a cold, four to six doses will cure.

It won't cure a horrible sore throat in one night, nor in fact will it cure anything in that space of time. It takes at least a day or so to cure a cold, but

IT GETS THERE ALL THE SAME.

It stops your cough almost at once, but should you stop taking it after two or three doses probably your cough would return. One thing you can always be sure of: Long before you have emptied the bottle you will be "all O. K."

As a trial of this truly wonderful medicine costs nothing, and as 95 cases out of every 100 will be cured it is well worth your while to at least make the trial.

MINNEAPOLIS SERVANT GIRL'S BRAVERY

Burglars Who Were Prevented From Carrying Out Their Nefarious Work.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 12.—A servant girl at the house of A. M. Crettenden prevented the house from being robbed last night. The girl had been left alone to take care of a child while the family were out. At about 10:30 o'clock she heard a noise at the rear door, and a moment later the glass in the door was broken, and she heard some one fumbling at the bolt. She ran quickly up-stairs, secured a revolver and rushing to the window over the door, pointed it downward and fired. She heard two men shout, one of them evidently in pain. She waited and saw two men, one supporting the other, who was holding his arm as if it were hurt, hurrying away. When the family returned, investigation showed that the bullet had done good work, as there was a pool of blood on the door-step.

FRANCE'S NEW METHOD OF VOTING

Causes the Opportunist Journals to Bubble Over with Joy To-day.

By Cable to The Freeman.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—The adoption by the Chamber of Deputies of the Scrutin D'Arrondissement bill has afforded much gratification to the opportunist journals. The Republique Francaiz says: "We armed the Republic yesterday. We will not disarm it tomorrow by voting for a revision of the Constitution." The Journal Des Debats says: "The establishment of the Scrutin D'Arrondissement system of voting can only result favorably with a moderate Cabinet in office." The Radical journals fear the consequences that will follow the adoption of the measure. The Monarchical and Boulangist papers declare that the action of the Chamber in passing the bill will not change the verdict of the electors, who, they say, do not desire any more parliamentarism.

A Wrestling Match.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WORCESTER, Mass., Feb. 12.—One of the most exciting wrestling matches ever seen in this City was that at the Rink, last night. The contestants were Duncan C. Ross, champion mixed wrestler; John Graham, and the champion of England, and H. M. Dufur, champion collar and elbow wrestler. The articles called for 27 falls and the man winning the greatest number was to be winner of the match, the purse of $450 and the entire gate receipts. The wrestlers were to contend with each other in three hours, collar and elbow, Cumberland style, and catch as catch can, giving an exhibition of the favorite style of each. Ross and Graham had won five bouts each, and Dufur four, when the management thought a postponement was necessary, and, amid the howls of those present, the announcement was made. To-night the affair will be concluded.

Mary Anderson's Scenic Artist in Trouble.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—At about midnight, in the Commercial Hotel, commotion was created by the piercing screams of a woman. William F. Doran, scenic artist for Mary Anderson, was found to be beating his wife, who is known on the stage as "Clara Russell," also of the same company. The proprietor of the hotel ejected Doran and Miss Russell, with her face badly bruised and disfigured. The pair were married three weeks ago. Miss Russell says Doran is insanely jealous.

Were These Watches Stolen?

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BUFFALO, Feb. 12.—A young man is under arrest here who had in his possession four valuable gold watches. He refused to give any account of himself, but is supposed to be from the West. One watch bears the name "H. J. Keena," another has the initials "H. W." and another the inscription "W. F. Riedy, from his father." The prisoner now gives his name as Thomas Brown, and will be held until the owners of the watches are found.

An Earthquake, Probably.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

EDMONTON, N. W. T., Feb. 12.—Last Thursday a loud noise like the report of a cannon, followed by a rumbling noise like thunder, apparently underground, was heard by many people in the town and surrounding country. At Stoney Plain, 15 miles from here, it was most audible. Some persons felt a slight trembling of the earth.

The Des Moines River Land Bill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Feb. 12.—The receipt of the news of the passage of the Des Moines River land bill caused little interest here. Snell, the owner of most of the lands, regards it as of no consequence, as previous decisions of the United States Supreme Court have confirmed the title.

A Valentine.

[Frank Dempster Sherman, in the Century.]

Love, at your door young Cupid stands
And knocks for you to come;
The frost is in his feet and hands,
His lips with cold are numb.
Grant him admittance, sweetheart mine,
And by your cheering fire
His lips shall loosen as with wine
And speak forth my desire.

He left me not an hour ago,
And when the rascal went
Barefooted out into the snow
I asked him whither bent.
Quoth he: "To her whose face is like
A garden full of flowers,
To her whose smiles like sunlight strike
Across the winter hours."

No more he said, nor need of more
Had I to know. I knew
His path lay straight unto your door—
That face belongs to you.
"Godspeed," I cried, "and give her this
When you her face shall see;"
And on his lips I set a kiss,
A Valentine from me!

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

"I speak within bounds, sir," said the prisoner in the dock, when addressing the jury. We speak knowingly when we declare with enthusiam the great benefits of Dr. Bull's famous Cough Syrup.

RHEUMATISM

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Lyman Crawford, Druggist, of Springfield, Mass., says: For years I was afflicted with kidney disease in its worst form, and I state, with a perfect recollection of all that was done for me, that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., gave me permanent relief.

If your druggist does not keep the medicine, address the proprietor, Rondout, N. Y.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

TRY, TRY AGAIN.

After trying many advertised remedies for catarrh during the past twelve years I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and with complete success. It is over one year since I stopped using it and have had no return of the catarrh. I recommend it to all my friends in this vicinity. Milton T. Palm, Reading, Pa.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—A positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

Hardly wise to suffer pain when a Hop Plaster acts instantly and pleases the wearer.

A FEW POINTERS.

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. The disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough, which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 50c. and $1. Trial size free. For sale by all druggists.

"I am little, I know, but I think I can throw a weight of a hundred ton." So sang a proud banana peel. But Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are quite as powerful in meeting with and overthrowing disease. If you have rush of blood to the brain, dizziness, headache, constipation or biliousness, buy a vial of these pills at once. One a dose.

THE BLOOD

Is the source of health; therefore, to keep it well, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is peculiarly designed to act upon the blood, and through that upon all the organs and tissues of the body. It has a specific action also upon the secretions and excretions, and assists nature to expel from the system scrofula, humors, impure particles and effete matter through the lungs, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs. A trial will convince you that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid; at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; eyes weak, watery and inflammable; ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs and ulcers; voice changed and nasal twang; breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; is there a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility? If you have all or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Nasal Catarrh. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians. The manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer, in good faith, a reward of $500 for a case of this disease which they cannot cure. The remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

The action of Carter's Little Liver Pills is pleasant, mild and natural. They gently stimulate the liver, and regulate the bowels, but do not purge. They are sure to please. Try them.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

ABOUT COCKROACHES ET AL.

"The cockroaches in this house are remarkably versatile," said an actor at a hotel table, picking up a biscuit. "I notice that they appear in different rolls every morning." Caroline Jones, of Columbia, Pa., appears in the role of a public benefactor. She says: "Dr. Tutt's Pills have conferred a great blessing upon females sick with headache and indigestion. We've fallen in love with these pills here." They have won the love of people in all sections.

A beautiful young lady became so sadly disfigured with pimples and blotches that it was feared she would die of grief. A friend recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which she took, and was completely cured. She is now one of the fairest of the fair.

KISSING GOES BY FAVOR,

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle, at VanDeusen Brothers', Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke's, Kingston, drug stores.

OUTSPOKEN SCIENCE.

The following statement came voluntarily to the proprietors of the great preparation of which it speaks. They have never had the pleasure of meeting the eminent scientist who wrote it, but appreciate the honest candor which prompted it:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This may certify that as the result of extended researches I am able to state that, in the Duffy Malt Whiskey alone, there is to be had such a pure article as I have described in my paper on "A Scientific Specific for Intemperance," in the North American Review for July, 1888. It is, of course, a well-known fact that we may procure, as a laboratory product a whiskey that shall be free of fusil oil; but it is with pride that I state that alone of commercial whiskies the Duffy Malt declines to injure the brain and the system.

Skating on the Rondout Creek has been dangerous thus far this winter, but fortunately no serious accidents have been reported.

Valentines, this year, are more elaborate and costly than ever before, but the comic valentine, like almanac jokes, is unchanged.

Young men "played" on a kettle drum at an unseemly hour on Abeel-street, Rondout, last night. In any other place of the size of this they would have been "run in" by the police for disorderly conduct.

The members of the Supervisors' Committee on Addition to the County Clerk's and Surrogate's building, Kingston, have awarded the contract for the erection of the addition to Darling Brothers & Burger, they being the lowest bidders, the work to be completed by September 1.

NOTES ABOUT ICE AND "ICE MEN."

What is Being Done 'Long Shore and Up in the Catskill Mountains.

At and near Albany an excellent crop of ice is being harvested.

Twenty-six car loads of ice reached Rondout last night, from South Gilboa, via. the Ulster & Delaware Railroad.

The "harvest" was begun at Hudson and points north to-day. The cakes measure from six to 10 inches in thickness.

The work of filling the Knickerbocker Ice Company's houses at Esopus, with ice from the Esopus Pond, has been commenced.

The correspondent of THE FREEMAN, at Lexington, in the Catskill Mountains, writes: "Ice houses at this place have been filled with a fine quality of ice, from 10 to 13 inches in thickness."

William McGinnis, of Rondout, began the work of cutting ice on the Kingston Point flats to-day, but was compelled to desist after a short time on account of the ice near the shore giving way, thus preventing sleighs from running on and off the ice. A bridge will be built from the shore to the ice. The ice on the flat is seven and eight inches in thickness.

A Rondout Lady's Serious Fall—Accidents in Near-by Places Noted.

A seven-year-old Port-Jervis boy, named Henry Barker, fell from a tree, on Friday, and his head struck on a curb-stone. He may die.

There were three accidents on the Erie Railroad on Sunday and Monday. Two men each had one of their hands smashed, and a third man was thrown from the top of a moving train and was badly injured.

About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. S. Staples, of Rondout, started to go home from the residence of John McCausland, on Union-avenue, where she had made a call. She slipped on the ice and her left limb was broken. Mrs. McCausland went to her aid. The attention of a gentleman in a sleigh was called, and Mrs. Staples was carried to her home. Drs. Augustus and Frederick Huhne reduced the fracture.

A Point of Law Well Taken.

Charles Beaumont, of Wilbur, was arraigned before Recorder Hussey, this forenoon, charged with assaulting a young man named Edward Sandford. Beaumont's counsel asked the discharge of his client on the ground that the officer who arrested him had no right to take him to jail before being arraigned before a magistrate for an examination. The Recorder said the point of law was well taken, and he discharged Beaumont.

Select music, by an orchestra of 20 pieces, under the direction of Professor Williams, will be a leading feature of the event.

The following has been printed about Mrs. Alice J. Shaw, whistler, who will appear in Kingston Opera House on Monday night: "She has a whole aviary and a whole orchestra of reed intruments in her mouth. Her whistle is a most comprehensive intrument, capable of stress, swell, staccatos, trills and tremolos, with a range of two and a-half octaves. That is a technical description of her powers. To be colloquial: Her labial music has been compared to Niagara for volume and power. To the soughing of the west wind through the tree-tops for softness. To the soaring bombshell for rapidity. To the 'untutored saw-buzzer' when rendering Wagner. To the saucy bobolink for pertness."

Concerning Miss Lamar, who will appear in Bartley Campbell's "Fate," at Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, on Friday night, the New-York Evening Sun has said this: "Though somewhat above the average height, her movement is always naturally lithe and graceful. In many of the brighter passages of the piece her delicate, refined countenance is often animated with a very winsome and playful expression, and seldom, if at all, grows oppressively languid or dull. While there may be room for improvement in Miss Lamar's present endeavors, she certainly exhibits unusual promise and capability. Her conception is generally accurate and thoroughly intelligent. The supporting people are uniformly good."

NOTES ABOUT CURRENT LITERATURE.

A Newburgh Man's Book of Poems—The Railway Mail Service—"Vagabond Tales."

Wide Awake has this year taken a new hold on popularity—if such a thing could be possible.

Branard Emery, of Newburgh, has published a volume of poems. The edition is limited to 114 copies.

The City of Treves, Germany, founded 2,004 years before Christ, and later, for a century, capital of the Roman Empire, will be described in the March Scribner by Professor W. B. Scott, of Princeton, who has recently made a careful study of its antiquities.

Professor Boyesen's "Vagabond Tales," in press by D. Lothrop Company, of Boston, Mass., is an engaging collection of this popular story-teller's recent "novellettes." No writer living—scarcely excepting even the great Bjornstein—so thoroughly understands the Norse character and when into this is infused the American element, the success of Professor Boyesen's tales is easily understood. Some of the stories taken into this collection have already been translated into French, German and Spanish.

Thomas L. James, Postmaster-General in Garfield's Cabinet, will contribute his first magazine article to the March Scribner—entitled "The Railway Mail Service." He will concisely and entertainingly describe the evolution of mail-carrying in this country, from the days of the colonial carrier, with the letters in his saddle-bags, to the modern fast mail train. A graphic account will then be given of the actual work done on the most important mail trains in the country, describing the skill and dexterity of a corps of trained mail clerks.

Eighteen districts, comprising 170 fields, have been entirely canvassed and reported, and 12 districts, comprising 115 fields, partially canvassed. There are still about 1,000 families not visited and have not yet been reached through the Alliance.

SUPERVISORS' REPORTS.

Then followed the reading of Supervisors' reports.

One said:

Two families have secured sittings and become regular church attendants; six children gathered in Sunday School, and several others as soon as suitable clothing can be procured. My visitors feel great interest in the work

Another said:

Every field in my district has been visited. One destitute family has been made comfortable for the winter through the agency of the Alliance.

A third writes:

A visitor reports a neighborhood greatly destitute of religious influence and a desire on the part of the people for religious service there, and adds an effort will be made to do something for them.

THE REV. A. K. FULLER'S REMARKS.

The Rev. A. K. Fuller made a short address. He said in substance that he had come to the conclusion that in order to go forward with the work of the Alliance certain things were necessary. It has been demonstrated that the work is an incalcuable help to the churches. He favored calling a meeting of all interested, to lay out a plan of work and then faithfully carry it out. It is useless to have Overseers who do not work. There is much workable territory in which to labor. The Alliance was started upon the basis of doing something. Hitherto the work has been experimental. Now is the time to begin to labor in earnest. If every one does his duty good results will follow. One person cannot do the whole work. Concerted action on the part of all is needed, and if this is done there will be no fear of the future of the Alliance. Mr. Fuller alluded to the encouraging report of the Secretary.

PROFESSOR CAPEN'S VIEWS.

Professor Capen spoke on "Unused Religious Forces in Our Churches." He said he was interested in the work of Christianizing people, and from the report he had heard read by the Secretary the Alliance had no reason to feel discouraged. A great work has already been done. No one could measure it. Later on the speaker said: "A great work in any church is for 10 men to get the rest at work. Some people are afflicted with what is known in physics as inertia. One of the religious forces is motion. A force that will create motion and stop motion. There are men in church who make a great flourish but do no work. Theirs is a false motion and they should be checked. It takes the most force in any church to get all in motion. The foremost men are the ones who get the others to work. It is a wise man who will not do 10 men's work when he can get 10 men to do the same work. There is plenty for all to do—men, women and even children. The more at work the stronger the church. A weak church is found where the Pastor has to do all the work. Churches should be thoroughly organized. No one can measure the value of individual effort. Another unused force in church work is money. First men, second money. It takes money to run the church. The power of money is proverbial. Individual effort tends to giving, but if any one man gives to the exclusion of others it hurts the church. Rather should 10 men give 10 cents each than one man give $10. This gets all interested. An endowment church is a poor institution. Every individual should be asked to contribute something. There ought to be money in the treasury of the Alliance, and that money should be used wisely for the benefit of the poor and needy of this City. If people get an idea that you are sincere in looking after their bodily wants, they will believe that you are in earnest in your endeavor to save their souls. Prosecute the work with more vigor in the future than has been done in the past. Thorough organization is another unused force. If you have a great many at work in a church it is by organization. Thorough organization should be carried into every department of church work. Search out strangers in the church and shake hands with them. There should be a "shaking committee." Strangers like to be noticed. God is working by His spirit and word, but uses you and me as instrumentalities in that work. Another unused force in religious work is the value of statistics. There is a power and an inspiration behind them. It is a great satisfaction to know what has been done in church work. The Pastor should know how his congregation is "run." There is a power in it. The only way to know these things is to keep track of them. There is no office in the Sunday School more important than that of Secretary. He has a large field, and can do as much effective work as the Superintendent. Somebody should keep statistics. Let the Sunday School know how many teachers and scholars are present from Sunday to Sunday. Another important force is social life at home, on the street and in the church. The lower the person is in the scale of humanity the more he will appreciate cordiality and kindness. There is a wonderful power in a handshake—not the country pump-handle shake, but the one that will make you feel as if the shaker's soul was in the end of his fingers. In the family life there is a power in the head of a family to exercise an influence for the church on the other members, particularly the children. Parents who bring their children to Church with them are a power in any Church. Get the children in the habit of going to Church, and the habit will grow with them. If they are allowed to stay at home when young they will stay at home when they are men and women. Parents should see to it that their children occupy the same pews with them. The power of prayer does not amount to much unless we are earnest and have faith. God answers prayers. The power of music and of song should not be overlooked. The people love these things. They are a great power over the ordinary mind and heart."

THE REV. DR. VANSLYKE'S ADDRESS.

The subject of the Rev. Dr. VanSlyke's address was: "Is the Alliance a Practical Method For Utilizing These Forces?" The speaker contended that it was. He said he regretted that there is not a larger representation of Kingston people identified with the Alliance. By means of the Alliance he had learned to his great surprise and gratification that there are 30 families attending services at his church whose names he had not before known. This is one of the grand results of the labors of the Alliance. Later on the speaker spoke of certain facts to be recognized. There is a large number of people in this City who are non-church-goers. This is a startling and alarming fact. Then there is a considerable number of people who are estranged from the church because of certain prejudices. This class of people have a vague conception of the church; that it is a place for only well-to-do people, with whom they are averse to mingling. Then there is a certain poison disseminated by the press, which fills the minds of readers, who grow skeptical and come to believe that religion is played out. A spiritual inertia prevails in the hearts and minds of some people. There are the Sunday papers, or rather magazines, which monopolize the minds of many who otherwise would attend church and listen to the words of gospel truth. Mr. VanSlyke asked, "How does the Evangelical Alliance adjust itself to these facts?" In answer he said that the Alliance works on the co-operative plan in a most ingenious and happy manner and refuses to have anything to do with secularism. With all the churches combined it undertakes simply to utilize the great spirit of Christ under command of a captain and his aids. The first principle of co-operation in this work is to advance in the most efficient way the unity of Christ's religion. The Alliance endeavors to bring in close contact with the church, people who are estranged. As an illustration, Mr. VanSlyke explained the method of irrigration of land in the far West, and said the purpose of the Evangelical Alliance was to irrigate society to a Christian growth. Living force is the only thing that will overcome this inertia in men. Every visitation of the Alliance well directed and sustained, helps to overcome this inertia. The Alliance transmits religious influences to these people. It is the nerves of the church—a gigantic octapus grasping up in its tentacles the poor, needy and sinful people of a community, and inducing them to attend church. It is a far-reaching Nemesis. "Christ touched the stricken ones. Are we not to lay our hands on the suffering ones? Will not you stretch your hand to that cold life? You can do it. Christ said: 'I will draw all men unto me when I am lifted up.' But how is the church to draw men to Him? We may be the conveyances of Christ's spirit. Use influences emanating from Christ. It is your duty to do it. What is the church for? I ask you to put on your thinking cap. What is the church for? Is it an ark—an old Roman Catholic notion—to get into to be saved? I would not insult your intelligence by supposing you would answer yes. There is something more to be done than simply 'getting in the church.' A spirit of religious work should break out and invade society and put out the fires of evil and selfishness. The church is a force to do good. The Alliance is a factor to generate this force." Mr. VanSlyke, to illustrate how "mean some people in this City must feel," told of a man in Colorado who went hunting quail on a Sunday. His wife pleaded with him not to go, and as a last resort said that a collection for home missions would be taken up that day in church and he would be expected to give something. Taking a roll of bills and some change out of his pocket the man searched through them until he found 25 cents, which he gave to his wife for home missions. While hunting, a storm arose and the man sought shelter in the hollow of a cotton-wood tree. He fell asleep and was awakened by a pressure against his body. He could hardly breathe and he suffered intense pain. The cotton wood tree, which was porous, had begun to swell from the rain that had fallen upon it. The man tried to think of any good deeds that he had done, and he recalled to mind the 25 cents that he had given his wife that morning for home missions. He felt so mean and small that he crawled out of the log like an eel. The speaker concluded by urging hearty co-operation in the work of the Alliance.

THE MUSIC RENDERED.

The music was a pleasing feature of the meeting. A male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Charles Knight, Rufus Hermance, Melvin Wygant and Richard Dawe, rendered several appropriate selections. The violin obligato by Jerome Williams, and organ accompaniment by Professor John Karl, and a solo by Rufus Hermance, were well rendered. The following was the programme rendered:

Cavatina .... Raff
Messrs. Williams, violin; Professor Karl, organ.
Christ the Fountain .... Quartette
Nothing But Leaves .... Quartette
God in Mercy Hear a Prayer .... Rufus Hermance
There is a Green Hill Far Away .... Quartette

A SPECIAL MEETING.

A NOTE CASE.

The first case placed on trial, this forenoon, was No 3, James G. Powers et al. against Mary A. Diamond et al. John E. VanEtten, attorney for plaintiffs, and William Lounsbery for the defendants. The action is brought to secure the payment of a promissory note of $567.52, given on December 7, 1882, by George B. Diamond and his mother, Jane Diamond, and sister, Mary A. Diamond, of this City. The pleading of the plaintiff is that the note is a legal paper and the money consideration on its face should be paid. The defense is that the note was obtained by fraudulent statements made by plaintiffs and others who "played" upon the emotions of two of the defendants, and induced them to sign or give the note to "save their family from disgrace and shield the son and brother, who at the time the note was signed was confined in the Ulster County Jail in Kingston," under criminal charges, and also that those who signed the note received no money or other valuable consideration whatever for so doing. After several witnesses had been examined and much argument pro and con by counsel, Mr. Lounsbery asked the Court for the privilege of amending his answer by inserting therein the words, in relation to the note, "because it was given to compound the alleged felony against the form of the statute." Counsel for plaintiffs made affidavit that amending defendants' answer raised a new issue which the plaintiffs were not ready to try on account of the absence of witnesses and the case was put "over the term" on the payment of "term costs" by the defendants.

AN EJECTMENT SUIT.

A jury was taken in No. 4, John Lee et al. against Franz Schrowang. John E. VanEtten for plaintiff; William Lounsbery for defendant. This is an ejectment case and the issue involved is the title to a triangular piece of land situated along the "Plank Road" in the village of Hickory Bush, town of Rosendale. The pleadings of the plaintiffs, who are minor children of Daniel Lee, deceased, claim a two-thirds interest in the piece of land. The defense is that the property rightfully belongs to Franz Schrowang.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Putnam says he will hold two weeks' Circuit.

The attendance of lawyers at the opening of the Circuit Court was large.

The steam heating of the Court House, Kingston, is appreciated by attendants.

There are several cases on the calendar that lawyers call "long winded" cases.

The 70 or more cases on the calendar does not show much "rush" on the part of lawyers and clients.

The demand for "Court Calendars" was so lively this forenoon that County Clerk Wurts was advised to get some insurance agent to help him out. One hundred and twenty calendars were printed for this term of Court and only one or two are left.
